PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 6, 1897.

On the thirty-first of December the master builders of this city, in a dignified and befitting manner, bade farewell to the old and welcomed in the new year. After a brief address by the president, William Irvine, and remarks by Mr. Joel Cook, of Public Ledger, the programme began with a banquet, followed by a season of music, literature, fun and frolic. Everyone present voted the affair a success, and the committee on entertainment, with William S. P. Shields as chairman, acquitted themselves with great credit for hospitality on the part of the Exchange.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

B. Ketcham's Sons, contractors, are about to build a five-story brick addition to the premises 409 Arch street, belonging to the Episcopal Hospital Association, to increase the business facilities of the property. The addition, 18 by 28 feet, will connect the front and rear buildings.

The De Long Bros., having bought the property at the southeast corner of 13th and Chestnut streets, will take possession at an early day. It is understood to be their intention to improve the site with a large business structure, but as yet no plans have been prepared for the work.

The Fairmount Steel Works are about to build a one and a three-story brick addition to their plant on the irregular lot bounded by Twenty-fourth and Spring Garden streets and Pennsylvania avenue. The architect is Thomas Jamieson, and bids are being received by builders.

E. H. Postel, 807 Green street, wants bids on repairs to a building which was recently destroyed by fire. This building is located on Ridge avenue, Nos. 1314 and 1316. The owner is now receiving bids for repairs to ascertain the cost of remodelling. The building was damaged to the extent of $10,000.

William H. Day, builder, has been awarded the contract for repairs to a foundry, which recently was destroyed by fire, by the Camden Foundry Company, Elm and Delaware avenues. These repairs include brick work, roofing, galvanized iron work, spouting, etc., painting, glazing, iron work, etc. The builder may be communicated with on the premises. When work is finished this foundry will be one story high and measure 62 by 120 feet. The other factory will be two stories high and will measure 43 by 90 feet. Formerly mentioned.

Structural Engineer Barnes, of the Bureau of Building Inspection, has approved the plans for the erection of the Bell Telephone Company's building, at the northeast corner of Eleventh and Filbert streets, which has previously been described in this column. Contractor Charles McCaul has been granted permission to put up the new structure, which will measure 55.1 by 80 feet. The building will be six stories high, and there will be an attic, and the fronts will be of granite, limestone, steel and brick. The work will cost $200,000.

Builder A. L. Fretz, Cynwyd, Pa., wants sub-bids on a handsome granite residence. It will be three-stories high, with a basement. When completed this residence will have a frontage of 45 feet and a depth of 70 feet. The owner's name is withheld for the present. It will be built of granite and brick, with either a shingle or a slate roof. Bids will be received on heating, electrical work, mill-work, furnishing stone, plumbing, papering, painting, tile and mosaic work, grille work, roofing. The entire cost of this residence, including all sub-contracts, will be about $13,000.

Wm. T. B. Roberts, operator, has sold to Wm. S. Price, for $48,500, eighteen lots, each 16 by 81 feet, on the north side of Jefferson street, above Fifty-second; thirty-seven lots, each 16 by 55 feet, on the east and west sides of Wilton street, north of Jefferson, and fifty lots, each 16 by 55 feet, on the east and west sides of Lindenwood street, north of Jefferson. It is said to be the intention of Mr. Price to improve the lots by the erection of a number of fine dwellings. Mr. Roberts has also sold to George M. Seltz premises 1422 Hollywood street, containing eight rooms and bath, and lot 14.4 by 53 feet, for $2400. Ten lots at Thirty-second and Race streets to John D. Harris for $15,500. Mr. Harris will build ten dwellings on the site. Five lots, on which are to be built three-story houses, on Susquehanna avenue, 110 feet West of Twenty-sixth street, each 16 by 66 feet, to James J. Cochran for $5500; eight lots, each 16 by 16 feet, on the south side of Wolf street, corner Siebold street, to James J. Connor for $6000. Two-story dwellings are to be built on this site.

Grand total of Expenditure during the year for Building Improvements of all kinds, $30,249,400.

The relief which the exit of the old year afforded the business people of the country is expressed everywhere.

The feeling that a business fatality was associated with 1896, from which there seemed to be no relief until the year had run its course, expressed itself in a manner which often bordered on superstition. With the advent of the early hours of 1897 a burden, many insisted, had been lifted from the people's shoulders, and an era of prosperity had commenced. Such an assurance, while doubtly welcome, conveys little or no comfort to those who make up the army of failures. To such as were compelled to yield under the pressure of obligations which could not be met there is one comfort at least, and that is they can commence again in a country full of greater possibilities for the industrious workers than any land under the sun.

It is evident that war and rumors of war have little or no effect upon those who are working out the destinies of great cities, for, while it seems such influences make and unmake the fortunes of men who buy and sell railway shares, the builders and owners, as well as the brokers and agents, pursue the even tenor of their ways, free from these or other distracting influences.

It was towards the close of '95 that the stock market went helter-skelter as a result of Cleveland's Venezuelan proclamation. A like panic was precipitated at the close of '96 through the revival of the Cuban question in Congress. As a fact, outside of the gilt-edge first mortgage railway bonds, the stock market has become so super-sensitive that the public will have little or nothing to do with it. Of course, this is good for real estate, and its influence will continue to express itself in increasing the number of investors. The main difficulty with which the market has to contend is the scarcity of money in business circles. Prices are low enough, and those of easy circumstances find frequent opportunities to capture bargains; but such bargains are the result of immediate financial necessities on the part of owners, and are not the result of nervousness as to the future.

Prices of real estate in the vicinity of Broad and Chestnut continue to harden, and there are plenty who claim that big money can be made even now at the present values.

The result of the year makes it conclusive that the interest and faith heretofore expressed in dwellings has not abated.

It will be noticed that the total of these for 1896 is 6838, or only 301 less than in 1895.

The loss is in three-story dwellings, which are short in number 832, while two-story dwellings show a gain of 549, and four-story a gain of 2 only.

Building during December was extremely light, while November made an excellent showing.

There were 18 office buildings over two stories in 1896, against 3 for 1895. The investments in these was $2,225,000 greater than in 1895.

Warehouses show an important falling off in numbers and a serious deficit in the investments. There were 26 of these in 1895 and but 15 in 1896. The difference in the investments is $273,400. Dye and dry houses were the same as in 1895, but the cost of the three this year was $13,000 less than those erected last year. Factories are 47, costing $615,100, against 62 for 1895, costing $667,042, a loss of $51,942 in the investment. Engine and boiler houses show an increase of 11, and the amount expended for these buildings is $91,748 more than in 1895. Breweries and bottling houses are 3 more, and $16,500 more was expended. Foundries and shops are 13 less, while the falling off in the investment is $176,800. There were 9 less large stores (not stores and dwellings) built in 1896 than in 1895. The cost of those built in the former year was $98,500 less than the cost of those built in 1895.

We give below a table showing the number of industrial buildings erected in this city since 1889, inclusive:

	1889	1890	1891	1892	1893	1894	1895	1896
Warehouses	39	32	28	45	35	21	28	15
Dye and dry houses	4	11	10	15	9	6	8	3
Factories	77	83	65	59	57	50	62	47
Engine and boiler houses	18	30	39	45	27	28	6	17
Breweries and bottling houses	5	11	7	5	4	5	2	5
Foundries and shops	75	117	64	60	51	42	31	18
Stores	78	61	44	34	40	11	18	9
	296	345	247	283	282	172	150	114

The percentage of industrial buildings to the whole number of buildings erected since 1889 is as follows by years:

	New Bldgs.	Indus. Bldgs.	Per Cent.
1889	10,250	296	2.9
1890	10,136	345	3.4
1891	6788	247	3.6
1892	7611	283	3.7
1893	6255	232	3.7
1894	6563	172	2.6
1895	7540	150	1.9
1896	7115	114	1.6

The total number of miscellaneous buildings is the same, 68, as in 1895, but there is a vast difference in their cost. The cost of those built in 1895 was $2,833,305, while those of 1896 cost but $1,467,000, the disparity being just $1,416,305, or nearly the entire cost of those erected this year.

Stables were 88 in number last year, against 170 in 1895, the difference in investment being $130,500.

There were no new school houses built, and only four in 1895, but their cost was $294,000, an important amount as to the total.

The 8 new churches this year cost $255,000, against $420,000, the cost of the 14 built in 1895.

Alterations and additions cut quite a figure in the sum total, $7,128,000 for these improvements is certainly a big showing. It is the natural result of low prices for material and the strong competition that has prevailed for some time. There will probably be a greater amount expended in these improvements during 1897.

The construction work done in new buildings of all kinds since 1887 is as follows:

No. of New Bldgs.	Estimated Cost.
6784	1887
6262	1888
10,250	1889
10,136	1890
6788	1891
7611	1892
6255	1893
6563	1894
7540	1895
7115	1896
77,254	$263,632,825

The above is certainly a grand display of quiet energy, representing, as it does, the growth of the most conservative city on the continent. The work has been done and the money expended in a matter of fact, business way, without the impracticable efforts of some other cities, which have not, during the same period, even approached our lowest record for a single year.

It is difficult to make predictions for this year. We think quite as much will be done in the way of building; perhaps too much in the dwelling line under the present labor conditions. Convalescence is usually slow, but it can be greatly hastened by the coming Congress. Revenue and financial questions merit immediate attention. There never was a time that required patriotic efforts, independent of party affiliations on the part of the members of both houses, more than the present.

The transfers number 13,746, against 13,336 for 1895, a gain of 410, but the value of the property transferred is $9,265,700.85 less than that of 1895.

The mortgage incumbrance of $25,886,889.53 is 34.7 per cent. of the amount of the transfers. This is an increase of 4.7 per cent. over 1895 and 7.4 per cent. over 1894.

The ground rents amount to $754,522.16, which, on a 6 per cent. basis, means a further incumbrance of $12,555,869.33.

The sales of real estate at auction foot up $78,067.66 more than in 1895. The following table of transfers since 1888 will afford comparisons by years:

	Transfers.	Amounts.
1888	12,679	$62,668,201.57
1889	15,945	$9,225,270.88
1890	15,571	$2,879,165.22

"Quaker City" Hopper

Hospitals, School Houses, Railroad Stations and Public
Institutions should be furnished with water closets
that have a large area of water, can be readily cleaned out in case the bowl becomes filled with foreign matter
and can be thoroughly flushed out.

The "Quaker City" Hopper possesses these advantages. It is an all-earthenware closet, with the trap and bowl in one piece, holding a considerable body of water, and with a seat of greater depth than is found in an ordinary closet. There is a full-sized waterway from the bowl to the soil-pipe, so that a stoppage in the trap is impossible. The illustration shows the closet connected with a soil-pipe fitting in the wall, but connection can be made with soil pipe in the floor when desired.

Architect Notes.

H. E. Flower, architect, 1215 Filbert street, has made plans for three fine dwellings, colonial in style, with Pompeian brick fronts, copper bays and porches, to be built by Thomas P. Twibill, owner, at 3423-25-27 Spring Garden street.

Samuel Harting, contractor, will at once start work on a dwelling for E. S. Jackson from plans by Horace Trumbaur, architect, 310 Chestnut street, at the corner of Carpenter street and Gresham avenue. This work has been noted previously.

Architect Wilson Eyre, Jr., is receiving preliminary bids on an apartment house, to be called the Clinton, which it is proposed to build in this city at a location not yet announced. The new structure will be of Pompeian brick, steel and iron, and be nine stories high.

Furness, Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, have finished the drawings for the P. E. Church of Our Saviour, to be erected at Jenkintown, and are taking estimates for the work. These include entire alteration of interior and a small addition as well. Mentioned previously in these columns.

A two-and-a-half-story stone and brick residence, 40 x 55 feet, is to be built by Contractor H. H. Wolf, at Bryn Mawr, for Jacob C. Warner, of Rosemont, from plans drawn by Architect Deveau, of Ardmore. Its cost will be $10,000. The same architect has plans made for a brick and frame residence, 30 x 40 feet, at Ardmore, for R. G. Smith, of that place, and also for a frame dwelling, 24 x 42 feet, at Ardmore, for Charles Powell, of this city.

A. F. Smith, architect, Reading, Pa., is engaged on plans for an addition to school house in that city at Twelfth and Greenwich streets. The structure will be of brick and stone, slate roof, be 50 x 65 feet, and two or three stories high, and interior have all the latest improvements. The same architect is making plans for an addition to a hospital in New Jersey. Tile work, steam heat, electric work, and best sanitary plumbing are noted in the preliminary specifications. Details will be noted later.

Architect Samuel Milligan, 520 Walnut street, is drawing plans for a colonial residence, which will be erected at Glen Riddle, Pa. It will be built of stone, with a shingle or slate roof. It will be three stories high, and will measure 34 feet square. The cost of this residence will be $5000, including modern conveniences and improvements, such as electrical work, speaking tubes, mantels, open fireplaces, wardrobes, sanitary plumbing, either steam or hot water heating. The owner's name is withheld for the present. Bids will be taken in a few days.

Otto Wolf, 1345 Arch street, has finished plans and is taking estimates on a brewery which will be built at New Haven, Conn., for the New Haven Brewing Company of that place. This brewery will be constructed of brick and iron, with a composition roof. It will be five stories high, with a basement, and will be built on the latest principles of slow-burning construction. When completed, this building will measure 60 x 75 feet. The contract will include the following items, such as excavating, brick work, iron work, masonry work, mill work, painting, glazing, plumbing and drainage. The cost of this brewery will be $65,000, including all contracts. Mention will be made when contract is awarded.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 518 Walnut street, has on boards plans for two fine houses to be erected at Frankford, each to be three stories high, of brick and stone, and interior to be fitted with all modern comforts and conveniences. Mr. Watson has also completed drawings for the Norristown Title and Trust Company's new building in that town. The structure will be five stories high, of stone and brick, marble and mosaic work, electric wiring and elevator, steam heat, and every modern convenience for an office building. This work will also include an improvement to an old store building in rear. A number of new rooms will be located on the entire first floor for sale of merchandise. No contracts have as yet been let.

J. C. Newsom, architect, 1001 Chestnut street, has finished plans for a church that will be built in Camden, N. J., for the Broadway Methodist Church. It will be constructed of stone, with a slate roof. This church will be one story high, with a gallery and basement. It will have a frontage of about 80 feet and a depth of 100 feet. The following items are embodied in the specifications, and will be included in the general contract: Sliding partitions, steam heating, electric and gas lighting, wiring, etc., interior work, such as tile work, painting, etc., glazing, plain and stained glass, toilet fixtures, such as urinals, closets, basins, etc., sanitary plumbing, altar fixtures, including altar rail and desk. The cost of this edifice will not exceed $60,000.

At Carlisle, Cumberland Co., Pa., Dr. Schulerberger will erect a fine residence, to cost $5000, from plans by H. E. Yessler, architect, York, Pa. At same place Mr. A. L. Beeten will erect a handsome residence of brick and stone, with all modern conveniences, etc., after plans by the same architect, to cost about $6000. Mr. Yessler has prepared plans for an office building and opera house, to be built at Shippensburg, Pa., of buff brick, stone and granite trimmings; steam heat, toilet-rooms, lodge-rooms, etc., complete. Work to commence about April 1st. All contracts to be let at once. All in charge of architect.

Architect J. De Nean, Rosemont, Pa., is making plans for a residence that is to be built at Princeton, N. J., for Mr. Charles Stephen, of that place. This residence will be built of brick, with stone trimmings and a tile roof. When completed, this residence will have a frontage of 40 feet and a depth of 60 feet. It will be three stories high, with a basement. All the modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot water heating, electrical work, such as wiring, combination gas fixtures, bells, annunciators, batteries, etc., speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, tile work, sanitary plumbing, and the latest bath-room fixtures, including enameled tub, closet and basin. The entire cost of this residence will be about $15,000. Mention will be made when bids are taken.

Active measures are being taken to at once improve John Dickinson Square, at Tasker street and Moyamensing avenue, to make it suitable for a children's playground. Emil Clarke Trittin has made the architectural plans and the ground engineered by Alfred R. Edgerton. The square itself measures 480 feet in each direction and will be inclosed by a high stone wall. The main portion of the space will be set aside as a base ball and foot ball ground, which will be surrounded by a raised bicycle track. The corners of the playground will be laid out in tennis courts, marble, top and hoop grounds. Spaces will be reserved for sand and piles, which proved such a success in school-house yards last summer. Two pavilions, 70 x 30 feet each, one for boys and one for girls, will be built at opposite ends of the square. These buildings are to be of the Spanish type of architecture, one story in height, and will contain baths and washing apparatus. The committee having the project directly under their supervision consists of Dr. John R. Parke, chairman; Theodore S. Leach, secretary; Dr. James McAllister, Rev. Dr. Robert Ellis Thompson, Bishop Cyrus D. Foss, Rev. William M. McVickar, Rev. Albert B. Philput, Rev. R. N. Forsyth, Rev. C. M. Boswell, Rev. Dr. Henry Berkowitz, Rev. H. P. Phillips, Mrs. A. J. Drexel, Herbert Welsh, E. Augustus Miller, L. L. Lee and A. M. Brinckle.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 13, 1897.

The Equitable Trust Company has just declared its eleventh semi-annual dividend, amounting to $1.50 per share (six per cent. per annum), which is payable on February 1, 1897, free of all taxes. The net profits of the company for the year ended December 31, 1896, were $90,872.86, and the total undivided profits of the company now amount to $277,468.86, after deducting the dividend due February 1, 1897. On December 31st the total deposits with the company amounted to $3,414,047.28. Some idea of the successful management of the company's affairs may be obtained by comparing these figures with those of the first year, ending December 31, 1890, at which time the total deposits were $382,949.95, and the undivided profits $25,515.70, or a gain in seven years of $1,581,097.33 in deposits and $151,948.16 in undivided profits.

A Non-Leakable Air Valve for Radiators.

Architects will be gratified to learn that the insufferable nuisance occasioned by the leaky air valves of radiators can now be entirely avoided through the use of a positively non-leakable valve, which is the invention of Mr. Chas. S. Onderdonk, president of the Onderdonk Heating and Ventilating Company, 520 Commerce street, this city.

The Onderdonk valve is made entirely of metal. It has no vegetable or other deteriorating or destructible substance of any kind about it.

The valve is based upon the ingenious use of the expansive and contractive characteristics of the metals used in combination, which expand with the introduction of steam into the radiators, making an efficient and non-leakable valve under all conditions. The metals used being non-corrosive, the security against wet carpets is not only obtained, but the durability of the valve itself for ages is also assured.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

J. Hayes Gallagher, builder, is about to build 48 dwellings at Sixty-seventh street and Greenway avenue, and is inviting bids for the work and materials. Plans and specifications may be seen at office, 1005 Betz Building.

E. A. Waddy & Co., No. 1108 Betz Building, Philadelphia, have the contract for furnishing the millwork and stair work for a country house being erected at Swarthmore, Pa., for Mr. Frank H. Geddes. This house will be finished throughout in ingrained quartered oak.

John W. Fritzinger, contractor, 468 Lyceum avenue, has been awarded the contract to erect a house for J. T. Dearnley. The plans were made by Hales & Ballinger, architects, southwest corner of Twelfth and Chestnut streets, and have been fully noted in previous issues of this journal.

Architects J. F. Stuckert & Sons have prepared plans for extending the wall and pavilion at Broad and Lehigh avenue, of the Philadelphia Base Ball Park. The corner, which was formerly oblique, will be carried out almost to a right angle and an entrance gate and stairway to pavilion constructed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Newbold, formerly Miss Marg. A. Scott, have bought the property 1315 Locust street, from the estate of the late Clement B. Barclay. It is understood to be their intention to make extensive alterations and additions during the coming Spring. As yet no plans have been prepared.

Where the seven old dwellings stood on Willow street, between Franklin and Eighth streets, and which were destroyed by the big fire in 1895, three handsome and modern two-story houses have been built by H. R. Warren, contractor. The other sites are still covered with ruins, but will also shortly be improved.

The old foundry building at the southwest corner of Fifteenth and Wood streets, and extending to Pearl street, is to be converted into a natatorium. A swimming pool, 60 x 75 feet, and numerous shower baths will be constructed and the entire interior remodeled for natatorial purposes. Hugo Black has the contract for the work.

All the leading contractors of this city have during the last week been estimating on a boiler and brass shop to be built for the Baldwin Locomotive Works at Broad and Spring Garden streets. The plans were made by their drafting department and are quite extensive. Structure to be one story high; brick, iron and stone construction.

It is intended by the Park Commission of this city to make many improvements of a permanent character during the early Spring-time. The proposition is made to sod and improve all the ground between the river and Zoological Garden. Also, to make quite an extensive number of bicycle paths and other minor details in way of new work.

Contractors Doyle & Doak have been granted permission to build the hall for the National Saengerfest to be held in this city. The building, which will measure 200 by 840 feet, will be a frame structure. It is to be put up at Fottrell Square, at Eleventh and York streets, and the work will cost $25,000. The building has already been described in this column.

Excelsior Elevator Company, 18 South Broad street, have been awarded the contract for electric passenger elevators for buildings, 1537 Chestnut street and 111 South Tenth street, for Mr. A. F. Bornot. The Excelsior Elevator Company have the agency for Philadelphia and vicinity for the Standard Elevator Company, of Chicago, Ill., who claim to have the largest and best equipped elevator plant in the world.

The Etherington Company, electrical engineers and contractors, 618 Fidelity Building, Philadelphia, have been appointed by the Colburn Manufacturing Company, Fitchburg, Mass., special sales agents for the sale of the Colburn Electric Generators and Motors in the territory including Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. The manufacturers have kept pace with the improvements suggested by new discoveries in the electrical science, and are enabled to present to the public a line of dynamos and motors possessing a greater number of real points of excellence than are found in any other apparatus on the market.

Paul W. Smith has sold to John D. Harris ten lots at Thirty-second and Race streets for $15,000. It is said to be Mr. Harris' intention to build ten dwellings on the site. Mr. Smith also sold to James J. Cochran five lots on Susquehanna avenue, west of Twenty-sixth street, on which Mr. Cochran will build in the near future five three-story houses. The lots measure 16 x 66 feet, and the price paid was $5500. Mr. Smith also sold eight lots at Wolf and Siebold streets to James J. Connor for $6000. Mr. Connor will build two-story dwellings on the site.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Ottsville, Bucks Co., the public school house was destroyed by fire last week.

—At New Brighton, Beaver Co., it is probable that the Borough Council will construct an electric light plant.

—At Greensburg, Westmoreland Co., Murray Forbes can give information relative to water pipe which will be needed in a short time.

—At Somerset, Somerset Co., a large hotel to cost $100,000 will be erected from plans prepared by Joseph Stilberg, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

—At Chester, Delaware Co., Mrs. T. Carr will erect a building for hotel purposes from

"A word to the wise is sufficient,"
Is a maxim we've frequently heard;
And now what we want is a maxim
To tell us just what is that word.

It enjoins all dutiful fathers,
While they still have good health, to
INSURE.

Heating will be either steam or hot water, combination electric and gas lighting, electrical work, plumbing, iron work, painting, glazing, papering, etc., will be introduced. The cost will be about $5000 each.

Architect John Smith, of York, Pa., is preparing plans for a residence that is to be built in York, Pa., for Mr. Howard Greely. It will be built of brick and stone, with a shingle roof. It will be three stories high, and will measure about 50 feet frontage and 60 feet in depth. The entire cost of this residence, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $10,000, including excavating, masonry work, brick work, roofing, mill work, painting, glazing, papering, heating, plumbing, electrical work, speaking tubes and tile work. Mention will be made when bids are taken.

All the improvements and conveniences, such as hot water heating, electric lighting and wiring, speaking tubes, tile work and sanitary plumbing and drainage will be included in this contract. The entire cost of this building will be $4000.

Stearns & Castor, Bourse Building, have awarded the contract for Mrs. Jos. L. Con-

It will be three stories high, and when finished it will measure 18 x 56 feet. Details were formerly mentioned. Also plans by same architects for three fine dwellings to be erected by the Frankford Improvement Company at that place, each to cost about $6000, and will be fitted with every modern comfort and convenience, etc.

S. C. Boyer, architect and owner, proposes to build eighteen large dwellings on the south side of Chestnut street, west of Forty-fifth street, each three-story, 18 x 65 feet. They will have Pompeian brick fronts, with stone trimmings, handsome porches, reception halls, landries, pantries, etc., and will sell from about $11,000 to $14,000 each. PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 20, 1897.

WE are indebted to Messrs. P. J. Fairlamb & Sons, 115 to 121 South Thirtieth street, dealers in cement, plaster, lime, sand, etc., for a very handsome calendar for 1897, a calendar well adapted for office use.

THE eighty-seventh annual statement of the American Fire Insurance Company shows a surplus of $465,734.40, an increase of $156,616.51. It also shows a handsome increase in its reinsurance reserve, which now amounts to $1,487,953.60. With assets amounting to $2,525,790.96, and outstanding losses amounting to only $122,102.23, it is evident that the company is not only carefully managed, but that it is certainly in a very prosperous condition. There is no change in the list of officers and directors.

AFTER a lingering illness, coupled with the infirmities of old age, Stephen Decatur Button, a well-known and highly respected architect, has passed away. Mr. Button practiced in this and the adjoining State of New Jersey principally, and had somewhat of a national reputation, being proverbial for his close adherence to the fundamental principles of strength and solidity in his work. Many monuments of his genius stand to-day, among which may be noted the granite office building of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Fourth street and Willing's alley; Spring Garden Institute; First Baptist Church; Stockton Hotel, Cape May, N. J., as well as quite a host of others throughout the nation. Mr. Button died on the 17th inst.

A Removal.

There is perhaps no business man in Philadelphia who, during the last decade, has reaped a greater degree of business success in his line than Mr. Frank Brennan, the proprietor of the Germanic Artificial Stone Pavement Company, whose yard is at 1908-10 Morris street. Mr.

Brennan has recently erected a beautiful residence at the northwest corner of Broad and Ritner streets, in the rear of which, known as 1409 Ritner street, he has also erected a business office. We announce Mr. Brennan's removal to his new residence and office.

Is the Bourse a Failure?

The American Grocer, on December 23d last, contained a long article devoted to the Philadelphia Bourse.

After stating the fact that the ground and building cost about two millions of good hard "money of the realm," and that there were over two thousand stockholders, it goes on as follows:

"Failure" is written over the enterprise. After the pronounced failure of the steamer Great Eastern, the burning question of the owners was, 'What shall we do with her?' And the burning question in near-by future years for us in Philadelphia, I very much fear, will be, 'What shall be done with the Bourse?' for its most optimistic friends admit that it is a rank failure and see little hope for the better in the future. Numerous reasons are given for the almost complete frustration of the cherished hopes indulged in upon its inception and dedication. Some men tell me it is—

"First.—Because of the management, which is said to be dominated solely by one man. Were this true, that would be easy of remedy.

"Second.—That it is too far from the centre of business. And yet it's within a stone's throw of the Stock Exchange and in the very centre of the banking and trust buildings.

"Third.—That it has attempted to surmount an insurmountable obstacle, namely, the want of railroad competition to the West and South, and that without such railroad competition, or the voluntary reduction of rates on the part of the lines that we now have, that a hundred Bourses would not restore to us our lost jobbing trade, our lost importing trade, our lost exporting trade."

Everybody in Philadelphia knows that the Bourse as it stands to-day epitomizes the faith, the credulity, as well as the enterprise of those who cordially endorsed the scheme by subscribing and paying for the stock at $50 per share. About one year has elapsed since the building was completed and the stock is now quoted at $10 per share.

The people were assured, from the inception of the project, that it meant an organization of active and unselfish, as well as bold and courageous, business men, around whom would crystallize popular sentiment which would make a formidable instrument in crushing internal and external forces that were working against the interests of the city; which would organize and direct capital, with the view of bringing buyers of our manufactured products to the floors of this self-same Bourse, to the great advantage of manufacturers and others; which would reclaim millions of dollars in trade that had been diverted to other cities through discriminating freight rates and curtailed shipping facilities.

In short, we were to have a Bourse, which, in Philadelphia, at least, would mean something more than a handsome building, with offices to rent, and dominated by no one,

This cannot be denied, for it is the essence of every speech that was made in the interest of the enterprise.

What have we got? What has been accomplished in keeping with the sentiment of the prospectus, which was fully elaborated with the view of inducing subscriptions?

Where are the members of the Bourse? Except an empty name and a load of debt, what has become of the long promised Bourse?

The business men of this city had better get together and inaugurate a new management under the old prospectus if they desire the city to reap the much promised benefit that was to be derived from the Bourse. If they do not, then the sheriff will prove to be the inevitable end sooner than is expected.

Architect Notes.

Architects Baker & Dallet, 1604 Chestnut street, have finished final drawings, and are now receiving estimates on an alteration to a store building located at 622 Chestnut street for Mr. J. J. Anderson. This alteration includes a general remodeling of the present building, which is three stories high, changing plan and partitions, etc. George L. Sipps, of this city, is figuring.

Plans have been prepared and Architect B. P. Elkinton is estimating and receiving sub-bids on thirty houses, on which work will begin about March 1. They are to be erected on Seventeenth, Wingohocking and Courtland streets, Germantown. They are to be two stories high, and measure 16 x 40 feet, and will be built of brick, with stone trimmings. They are estimated to cost $65,000.

Robeson Lea Perot, architect, 619 Philadelphia Bourse, has awarded the contract for erecting a gate lodge for the Northwood Cemetery Company to Mahan & Young, contractors. This work includes a building 30 feet square, with first story brick, second story frame. Shingle roof, hot air heating, cut stone work, hard wood finish, range and plumbing work, and artistic iron work. Previously noted in full.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Witherspoon Building, located at Walnut, Juniper and Locust streets, has been placed under the management of Mr. David C. Dallam, Seventh and Walnut streets.

The damage by fire to the building 205-207 North Front street, last week, will be repaired at once. The structure was occupied by Messrs. Ruby & Co., manufacturers of candy.

Messrs. De Long Bros., 439 North Twelfth street, have purchased the property located on the corner of Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, and will erect a large store and manufacturing building in the near future. Details will be noted later.

F. R. De PLANQUE,

No. 530 North Tenth St.

Otto A. Guenther, owner and builder, is getting ready to start work on an operation of 42 dwellings and stores and dwellings on Ridge avenue, Cumberland and Thirty-fourth streets.

David G. McClure, owner and builder, has started work on seven two-story brick dwellings, each 14 x 41 feet, on Merion avenue, east of Forty-ninth street, in the Thirty-fourth ward.

At New York, J. Pierpont Morgan has offered to erect a new building for the Lying-in-Hospital of New York. The estimated cost is $1,000,000. The Board of Governors has accepted the gift.

J. Morgan Jennison, attorney-at-law, has purchased the property 5103 Walnut street for a residence, and contemplates in the near future making extensive interior and exterior alterations, building an addition.

Roydhouse, Arey & Co., contractors, Master Builders' Exchange, have been given the contract to erect the boiler house and brass shop for the Baldwin Locomotive Works at Fifteenth and Hamilton streets, and will begin work at once. Previously noted in these columns in full.

The plans for the new Press Printing House, to be erected at the northwest corner of Seventh and Sansom streets, have been placed on boards of contractors for estimates. The drawings were prepared in the offices of Theophilus P. Chandler, Jr., architect, and fully noted in a previous issue of this journal.

There was talk at a meeting of the Board of Education's Committee on the Northeast Manual Training School of applying for a new annex. The school is overcrowded, and it is claimed that a building suitable for academic instruction can be erected for $50,000 or $69,000, exclusive of the cost of land.

George L. Sipps, contractor, is about to add three stories, 18 x 110 feet, to the new office building of A. F. Bornot, 1537 Chestnut street, making it four stories in height, and altering the adjoining building, 1535, to conform to the general style of and communicating with the other. The front will be of Indiana limestone with ornamental trimmings.

James H. Stevenson, owner and operator, contemplates the erection of 198 two and three-story houses and stores and dwellings on the tract of ground bounded by Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Cumberland and York streets, and on the intermediate streets to be opened through the tract. Mr. Stevenson is at present engaged in other extensive operations in the vicinity.

Edward J. Gilroy has been granted a permit to erect 66 dwellings, which will be put up on both sides of Stella avenue, between Trenton avenue and Amber street, in the Twenty-fifth ward. They will be two stories high; fifty-two of them are to measure 14 x 41 feet, and the other 14 will be 14 x 38 feet. John J. Raney is the owner. They will cost nearly $100,000, and the operation is to begin immediately.

Solomon Greenburg, owner, has submitted plans to the Building Inspection Bureau for 107 two-story brick and brownstone dwellings and 23 three-story stores and dwellings, on the tract of ground on Huntingdon, Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets, and on two new streets to be opened through the tract. The two-story houses will measure 15 x 40 feet and have porch fronts, and the three-story houses, each 16 x 40 feet, will occupy the corners on the several streets. An office and temporary workshop will be built at the northwest corner of Twenty-ninth and Huntingdon streets.

A protest against the opening of Parrish street was laid before Councils' Highway Committee recently by E. A. Ballard, representing the Louis Bergdoll Brewing Company. The ordinance had been passed upon by the committee, but not reported. Mr. Ballard claimed that the street, if opened, would divide the company's plant, and would have to cross two railroads at grade. The committee suggested that they would inspect the place if properly invited, and Mr. Ballard extended a cordial invitation. Everybody wanted to go, and the inspection was not referred as usual to a sub-committee.

Contractors W. W. Rea & Sons, 1815 Francis street, have the contract for a school building that is to be built at 1336 Spring Garden street for the Mt. Vernon Institute, 1334 Spring Garden street. This school building will be built of brick, iron and terra cotta, with a tin or slate roof. This educational institution will be four stories high, with a basement. Steam, a late system of ventilation, sanitary plumbing, sliding partitions, toilet rooms, fixtures, including urinals, closets, basins, etc., electric wiring and bells, painting and glazing, are included in this contract. Mr. W. J. Willits, Provident Building, Philadelphia, represents the owners. The entire cost of this school will not exceed $30,000, including all sub-contracts.

An ordinance has been recommended by Councils' Committee on Highways which authorizes the grading of Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Spruce, Pine, and Ashburton streets, in the Twenty-seventh ward, through the property of the estate of Anthony J. Drexel. Twenty-eight acres are covered by the plot, which is to be improved. The bill was reported favorably by the sub-committee of the district, and a letter was read from Ellis D. Williams, attorney for the trustees of the estate, offering, if Councils would pass before April 1 an ordinance authorizing the grading and making an appropriation to begin the work, to waive any claims for damages owing to the decided change of grade, and to dedicate to the city free of cost the ground occupied by the streets named.

One of the largest real estate deals that has been consummated for a long time past has just been closed, by which the West Philadelphia builder, George W. Sherman, has bought from John Tewdall the entire tract bounded by Master street and Girard avenue and extending from Fifty-second to Fifty-fourth street, and intersected by Kershaw avenue, Thompson street and Cathedral avenue, comprising in all nearly 300 building lots. Mr. Sherman will immediately improve the tract with handsome detached dwellings erected in pairs. They are to be of new and attractive design. The purchaser has erected a large number of elegant houses in the vicinity which have been rapidly occupied, and he is now giving the finishing touches to a handsome lot of 7 and 10-roomed houses at Fifty-second and Master streets.

The City Property Committee of Councils met on the 6th inst. Reports of sub-committees were called, and the committee on the purchase of the church property at the corner of Twentieth and Buitonwood streets, for $18,500 for fire purposes, reported the proposed ordinance favorably. The money for the purchase of sites for fire-houses is to come from the $8,000,000, and upon motion of Mr. Evans the matter was disposed of by having these ordinances left in the hands of the clerk of the committee after they have been favorably reported by sub-committees and by the general committee until the loan is assured. Another proposed ordinance, providing for the appropriation of $23,000 for a fire site at the southeast corner of Thirteenth street and Lehigh avenue, was also read. This ordinance took the same course. An ordinance authorizing the City Solicitor to examine the title of property at Meadow and Hedge streets, in the Twenty-third ward, on which it is proposed to erect a bath-house, was referred to a sub-committee of five.

The Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis has secured a suitable site for establishing a State sanitarium for the treatment of consumption in its incipient stages, and has appointed a committee to secure $15,000 to be used toward the erection of suitable buildings. A tract of nearly 600 acres, near White Haven, Luzerne county, not far from Glen Summit, has been chosen from a number of others. It is on the Blue Ridge slope, and its highest elevation is 1,700 feet above the sea level; the climate is dry and the locality naturally adapted for a sanitarium for consumptives. Dr. H. M. Anders, Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, Miss Redfield, James L. Stanton and Dr. S. Solis Cohen compose the committee to secure the $15,000, and with this sum it is proposed to erect five pavilions, each capable of accommodating from fifteen to twenty patients. These will be built at an altitude of 1,300 feet, so that the higher ground to the northwest will afford protection from the northwest winds. State aid is expected, and a bill appropriating $100,000 to the society will probably be introduced at the present session of the Legislature.

Architect Notes.

Architect Robert R. Marble, 708 Walnut street, is making preliminary drawings for a church which will be built for the Fourth Presbyterian Church, of Philadelphia at a cost of $80,000. The location is withheld for the present.

Architect George Lovatt, 424 Walnut street, has finished plans and awarded contract for a dwelling that is to be built at Torresdale for Mrs. Mamie Coates, of Radnor, Pa., to Russell Robinson, of Torresdale. This residence will be built of stone, two and-a-half stories high, with a shingle roof. It will measure 33 x 40 feet. It will contain all the modern conveniences, together with hot air heating, electrical work, plumbing, speaking tubes, painting and glazing. The cost will be about $6000.

Architect F. R. Watson, 518 Walnut street, has finished plans for a church which will be erected in Hankow, China. This church is to be built of brick and frame, with a tin roof. Plans have been completed for a mint in the same Chinese town. The mint is to be built of brick and iron. It will measure 40 x 60 feet, and will be one-and-a-half stories high. It will cost about $25,000, including heating, lighting, plumbing, painting and glazing.

Architect Thomas Jamison, 2219 Chestnut street, has finished plans and awarded William Steele & Son, 506 Walnut street, the contract for a one-story building, which will be erected for the Fairmount Steel works, of this city. This building will be constructed of brick and iron, with a slag roof. It will have two wings, one of which will measure 79 x 90 feet, and the other 40 x 90 feet. The following items are included in this contract: Excavating, masonry and brick work, roofing, millwork, painting, glazing, iron work, including columns, beams, trusses, separators, etc. The contract price will not exceed $200,000. Mention was made when bids were taken.

H. E. Flower, architect, Heed Building, Filbert street, above Twelfth street, is making plans and specifications for a large building operation to be erected by the owner, Thomas P. Twibill, 703, Betz Building. The location of the site is bounded by Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Jefferson and Oxford streets, and with fronts on Newkirk and Dover streets as well. It contains about 125 lots, and the houses will be two and three stories high, fancy colored brick, stone trimmings, interiors to have all the latest ornamentations and improvements. The two streets to be opened, 465 feet in length, will be paved with Perkiomen red brick. This is part of the Eli K. Price estate.

Architect E. C. Tritten, 410 Walnut street, is preparing plans for a tenement house that is to be built on South Third street, Philadelphia. It will be constructed of brick, stone and iron, with a composition roof. It will be five stories high, with a basement. When completed it will measure 40 x 125 feet. The following items will be included in the general contract: Steam heating, electrical work, tile and mosaic work, sanitary plumbing, drainage, latest improved bath and toilet-room fixtures, such as tubs, basins, closets and urinals, painting, papering, interior work, glazing and fire-escapes. The entire cost will not exceed $50,000. The owner's name is withheld for the present.

As previously noted, bids are being received for the new building which Mr. Calvin Wells is about to erect for the Press at the northwest corner of Seventh and Sansom streets. It is to be of light colored brick, with terra cotta and limestone trimmings and granite base. It will be eight stories in height, with a front of 92 feet on Seventh street and a depth of 50 feet on Sansom street. It will have six large circular windows and door on Sansom street. The basement is to be the pressroom, a vault extending under the pavement on both fronts of the building, which is to be of fireproof construction and equipped with passenger elevators and all needed appliances for business. T. P. Chandler is the architect.

Architects Furness, Evans & Co., Provident Building, are receiving bids on a residence which is to be built at Haverford, Pa., for Mr. R. C. Griscom, of this city. This residence will be of stone, with a shingle roof, and will have a frontage of about 20 feet and a depth of about 90 feet. It will be three stories high, and will be built after the Colonial style of architecture. When finished it will contain all the latest modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot water heating, electrical work, such as combination gas fixtures, wiring, bells, mantels, open fireplaces, tile and mosaic work, speaking tubes, grille work, plumbing, painting, papering, glazing, etc., which will be included in the general contract. The entire cost of this residence will not exceed $10,000. Mention will be made when the contract is awarded.

The former Rosengarten property at the southeast corner of Sixteenth and Chestnut streets, purchased about a year ago by Mr. Edward Perry, of Perry & Co., clothiers, is to be altered and remodelled into a business structure, for which plans have been prepared by Architects J. Franklin Stuckert & Son, on which bids are now being received. The first floor will be lowered and made into three large stores, running the entire depth of the lot and taking in the lower portion of a new three-story back building, which is to replace the present one. The upper portion of the building is to be used for office purposes. The lower portion will be remodelled and improved interiorly, and elevators, steam heating plant, &c., are to be provided. This work was noted previously in this journal when the plans were completed by the architects.

Architect P. P. Elkinton, 213 Walnut street, has finished plans and is taking bids on twenty houses that are to be built at Seventeenth and Wingohocking streets, Germantown. These houses will be built of Pompeian brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornice and a tin roof. They will be two stories high, with a basement. They will have a frontage measuring about 16 feet and a depth of 40 feet. Hot air heating, electric combination gas fixtures, wiring, batteries, bells, speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, tile work, papering, painting, glazing and sanitary plumbing will be included in the contract. Same architect is preparing plans for ten dwellings that are to be built in Germantown. These dwellings will be of brick, with tin roofs. When completed they will be two-and-a-half stories high, with a basement, and they will measure about 20 x 40 feet, and will contain all the latest modern improvements and conveniences. They will be for sale or rent. The owner's name is withheld.

Architect C. Morris Wells, 1229 Arch street, is preparing plans for twin residences that are to be erected in Wilmington, Del., for Mr. Lemon Speath, of that place. This pair of dwellings will be built of stone, brick and frame, with a shingle roof. They will have a frontage measuring 16 feet, and a depth of about 70 feet. All the modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot water heating, electrical work, including combination gas fixtures, wiring, bells, batteries, etc., speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, tile work, sanitary plumbing, etc., will be embraced in the specifications. The estimated cost of this pair of dwellings will be about $12,000. Mention will be made when plans are finished. Same architect is preparing plans for a residence which is to be erected in this city. It will be built of Pompeian brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornice and a tin roof. It will be three stories high, with a basement. It will have a frontage of 17 feet and a depth of 50 feet. Details will be given later. It will cost about $6000.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 27, 1897.

WHILE our Philadelphia merchants are bemoaning their lost export trade they may be able to derive a measure of comfort from the fact that their good neighbors in Baltimore are rejoicing over a surfeit of blessings, as the following clipping will show:

GRAIN BLOCKADE IN BALTIMORE.

Steamships Compelled to Load From Floating Elevators at Uptown Piers.

Special Telegram to The Times.

BALTIMORE, December 30.

The year closes with a continued blockade and rush in the grain trade at this port and the members of the Exchange will celebrate their success tomorrow. To-day a number of steamships that could not get alongside the piers or elevators loaded from floating elevators at uptown piers, where large steamers have not moored for years. The big British steamship Falls of Brooklyn lay at Jackson's wharf. Beside her was the floating elevator Baltimore, beside which lay the little propeller steamer St. Michaels, from Centreville, Md. She had 3,000 bushels of wheat in her hold, which was speedily transferred to the big ocean steamship by means of the elevator.

Six steamships are in the Bay bound for Baltimore to load grain for the foreign ports. There were fifteen steamships loading to-day here.

Inasmuch as the Philadelphia Bourse was organized for the purpose of helping our mercantile and commercial interests and not as a real estate investment, it is in order to ask what effort has been made by the managers and members of our two-million dollar Bourse to capture for our city even a small share of the present immense trade in grain for export?

As the girl answered, who was asked to refuse or accept a proposal of marriage in a word of three letter, "NIT!"

THE annual meeting of the Trades League on Thursday last called together a large number of prominent business men, who were deeply interested in the reports of the various committees which had labored incessantly during the year to obtain better facilities for our entire business community.

The truth is, the Trades League, in its earnest, unselfish work, so thoroughly overshadows every other business organization in our city that it is now regarded as a fortress of defense against every infringement upon public rights. Its record in the past certainly justifies the warm esteem with which it is regarded by everyone. Too much in the way of encouragement and commendation cannot be said for the efforts of these prominent business men, who generously give their valuable time and ability in order that the city may as nearly as possible secure all the advantages that properly belong to it.

If the gentlemen who guide and direct the affairs of the Phila. Bourse will not consider it an offence, we would kindly suggest that the membership of the Bourse be at once initiated into the self-same efficient work that is now being done by the League. The prestige of the finest business building in this country, together with the present magnificent opportunity for patriotic as well as earnest and profitable work, should inspire the members of the Bourse to second the efforts of the League. The path of glory will not lead to the grave in such an instance, at all events.

AT THE annual meeting of the stockholders of the Equitable Trust Company the following Board of Directors was elected, viz.:

Daniel Donovan, George H. Earle, Jr., Howard B. French, William F. Harry, Anthony A. Hirst, Arthur Hagen, Jeremiah J. Sullivan, Winthrop Smith, John Sparhawk, Jr., S. Edwin Megargee, Samuel Gustine Thompson, George L. Crawford, William B. Gill and John A. Johann.

The Auditing Committee, consisting of Messrs. Winthrop Smith, George L. Crawford and William B. Gill, in their report to President W. F. Harry, states that it made a careful and thorough examination of all securities in the possession of the company and found them to correspond in number, amount and character with the books, reports and statements of the Company. The report concludes: "We are pleased to add that this very satisfactory condition of the Company's business reflects great credit upon the direction and management of the Company's affairs, and is deserving of our commendation."

President W. F. Harry and his associate officers of the Company were all re-elected.

THE CALENDAR par excellence for 1897 is the one issued by Messrs. Jno. Lucas & Co., the paint manufacturers of this city. It is 98 inches long by 15 wide. The illustration represents a beautiful country home of the modern type, handsomely painted with Lucas' Paint, which fully explains the text of the subject, which is "Lucas' Paint Makes Ugly Houses Impossible." The calendar part is on a field of deep blue, the figures being in white, making a useful and attractive office ornament. The old established house of John Lucas & Co. is one of the most enterprising in the country.

Boyd's Business Directory.

Boyd's Philadelphia Business Directory for 1897 was promptly on hand and ready for delivery on the first day of the New Year, to the great satisfaction of the thousands of business firms who are its subscribers. The work was canvassed for, completed, printed and issued in a trifle over three months, hence the vast amount of information it contains can be relied on as being up to date. The usual characteristic features are retained, such as partners, officers of corporations, private addresses, etc., features which make Boyd's Directory of Philadelphia unique among all the business directories of the country.

Penn Mutual Statement.

The statement of the Penn Mutual Insurance Company shows not only a large increase of business for 1896, but also a heavy increase of assets, which now amount to $39,405,529.08. The policies issued during the year amounted to 9,639, representing an insurance of $24,417,932. Since its organization the Penn Mutual has paid out to policy holders $42,021,115.46.

Architect Notes.

Messrs. R. C. Remmey & Son, 2600 East Cumberland street, are taking bids on a large dryer, to be used in pressing and drying bricks. This will greatly enlarge their present plant.

Architect William Lea, of Bethlehem, Pa., is preparing plans for an alteration to a church located in Allentown, Pa., for the Church of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, of that place. When finished this church will be built of stone, with a slate roof. It will be two stories high, with a basement. It will be built after the Gothic style of architecture. The cost of this alteration, including steam heating, sliding partitions, painting, interior work, combination lighting, plumbing, stained glass, etc., will not exceed $30,000.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Board of Directors of the Land, Title and Trust Company, 603 Chestnut street, have unanimously voted to remove the plant to the S. W. corner of Broad and Chestnut streets, after the new building is completed. The capital stock of the company is to be increased to $2,000,000. The proposition is to be submitted to the stockholders to be voted upon, and it is said that it will surely be carried, as strong parties connected with the company are prepared to take the whole of the new stock if necessary, to carry the scheme through to completion.

J. H. Louchheim & Co., 1432 South Penn square, have been awarded the contract for sewer work, cement work, and brick street paving on operation of 129 two and three-story dwellings for Mr. Sol. Greenberg, at Twenty-eighth and Huntingdon streets.

The Trustees of the First Baptist Church, Broad and Arch streets, are having preliminary sketches prepared for a new structure which they propose to erect in a central location, which, at present, they decline to name. The drawings are to be ready for an estimate early in February.

A number of general contractors are at present making general estimates on the Broadway M. E. Church Building, to be erected in Camden, N. J., after plans by J. Cather Newson, architect, 1001 Chestnut street. A full description of the structure has been given in these columns previously.

The Reading Railway Company has acquired from the Pennsylvania Warehousing Company the storage warehouse at Sixteenth and Callowhill streets for $187,000. The deal is part of the Reading plan of reorganization. The company will take possession at once, using the property as a freight and storage station, principally for flour and cereals.

The Real Estate Title and Trust Company, 1340-42 Chestnut street, have bought the property now occupied by Yates & Troth, 1844, on the west of their present quarters, and will in the near future begin the improvement of the site by attaching it to their banking house. Of course the architectural features will be in keeping with their new front just completed.

On the morning of the 23th instant, fire destroyed almost the entire block bounded by Juniper, Filbert, Thirteenth and Market streets, and did considerable damage to the Market street front of Wanamaker's Depot. This, with other minor conflagrations in different sections of the city during the morning, has caused widespread destruction of properties which will be rebuilt at once. As we go to press the fires are still smoldering in the ruins.

The Fairmount Park Traction Company have purchased a site for an amusement ground upon which are to be located pavilions, electric plant, a large lake, rustic arbors, cafe and other general conveniences, much after the plan of Willow Grove. The location is to the eastward of the old Driving Park and was part of the Woodside estate. The work of putting the grounds in order will be started as soon as the weather will permit. Drawings and surveys will be made by the company engineers.

Mr. Henry R. Warren, the owner of the southwest corner Broad and Oxford streets, is tearing down the residence that has stood for many years in that location. Just what kind of a structure, and for what purpose the new one is to be adapted, Mr. Warren will not disclose, but the plans show a very handsome design for either an apartment, club, or other public structure. The reticence surrounding the matter gives some concern to the owners of property in that vicinity at least.

V. J. Hidden, Newark, Pa., has been awarded the contract for a hospital that is to be erected at that place for the city of Newark. The hospital will be built of brick and iron, with a tile roof. It will be four stories high, with a basement. When completed it will measure 40 x 80 feet. The contract includes all the latest improvements and conveniences, such as steam heating, electrical work, best sanitary plumbing, toilet and bath fixtures, including enamel tubs, basins, urinals and patent flush closets, etc.; tile and cement flooring, painting, glazing, etc. The entire cost of the hospital, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $100,000. Formerly mentioned.

The Operative Builders' Exchange, at their annual meeting at their office in the Bourse, on Monday evening, 18th inst., re-elected the following officers for the current year: President—Wm. T. B. Roberts. Vice Presidents—Edward J. Darby, Wm. C. Carman, James E. Dingee. Treasurer—H. T. Cornell. Secretary—Otto A. Guenthoer. Directors—Wm. T. B. Roberts, Wm. C. Carman, Wm. C. Merritt, C. C. Moore, J. C. Moore, Joseph H. Virkler, Otto A. Guenthoer, W. S. P. Shields, Wm. P. Albrecht, Thomas G. Hunter, Henry G. Shultz, Frank G. Williams, Edward J. Darby, Wm. T. Lindeman, H. T. Cornell, James J. Ryan, James Hastings, J. Anderson Ross, William Conway, James E. Dingee, Daniel Adams, Charles Callahan, John W. Miller, George H. Backmire, James Maguire.

The John L. Gaumer Company of Philadelphia has the order for making all the gas and electric light fixtures for the new Ninth Regiment Armory Building on Fourteenth street, near Sixth avenue, New York City, the contract price for the work being about $8000. The fixtures are to be made of all hand wrought iron throughout, and were designed by Architect E. A. Sergeant. The designs are all massive in construction, including two chandeliers which will be hung in the centre of the Main Drill Room, each chandelier having 192 gaslights, and provision will be made for suspending 12 are lamps. The spread of the fixture will be 13 feet; length from outlet to bottom of fixture 34 feet, and it will hang about 30 to 35 feet in the clear from floor to bottom of fixture; the weight of each fixture will exceed a ton and a half and will be arranged with a mechanical lowering device for trimming are lamps. Besides the above the Main Drill Room will be provided on each end of the room with four massive stationary chandeliers (eight in all), with 25 gaslights and one are lamp at the bottom of each. Around the other two sides and underneath the galleries will hang 27 chandeliers, with 12 gas lights and one are lamp. On the upper gallery will be 10 combination chandeliers and 33 combination brackets distributed in various parts of the room. In addition to the above fixtures for the Main Drill Room the contract includes a complete set of fixtures, all hand wrought iron, for the balance of the building, in which are included designs for the Company Rooms, Board of Officers' Room, Locker Rooms, Officers' Rooms, Library, Gymnasium, Reception Room and Corridors. The John L. Gaumer Company expect to have the work completed and hung in place by the middle to the last of February. This Company has the largest and best equipped factory for this line of work in the country, and for this reason was selected to execute this contract.

"A word to the wise is sufficient,"
is a maxim we've frequently heard;
And now what we want is a maxim
To tell us just what is that word.

And its meaning is far from obscure:
It enjoins all dutiful fathers,
While they still have good health, to
INSURE.

Architect Notes.

MacCollin & Fast, architects, have established new offices in the Mutual Life Building, 1001 Chestnut street, Room 604, formerly at 1028 Arch street.

William J. McCauley, architect, 1102 Walnut street, is receiving bids for seventy-seven houses which will shortly be commenced by Edward Roney, on the ground bounded by Fifty-second and Fifty-third streets, Haverford avenue and Seneca street, West Philadelphia, the sale of which was recently noted.

Leslie Sibson Warrington, architect, 45 North Thirteenth street, has made plans for a fine house to be erected at Haddonfield, N. J., for Thos. L. Warrington. The structure will be two and a half stories high, shingle roof, of frame and stucco work, plate and leaded glass windows, hot air furnace, best modern conveniences. Estimates are now being made in Wm. R. Dougherty's office, 1604 Sansom street.

Stearns & Castor, Bourse Building, are preparing plans for a pair of dwellings which will be erected in Frankford for the Frankford Land and Improvement Company. These houses will be built of stone and brick, with slate roofs. They will be three stories high, with basements. All the modern improvements and conveniences will be put in these houses. Owners will let all contracts. Mentioned before in this journal.

The same architect is preparing plans for a residence that is to be built in Frankford, Pa. This residence will be built of brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornice, and a tin roof. It will measure 18 x 40 feet. It will be three stories high, with a basement. All the modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot-air heating, electrical work, mantels, wardrobes, open fireplaces, tile work, plumbing, painting, papering, glazing. The cost of this dwelling will be $5,000. The owner's name is withheld for the present. Mention will be made when plans are completed and when bids are taken. Previously noted.

Architect Horace Trumbauer, 310 Chestnut street, has opened estimates, and awarded James O'Neill, of Jenkintown, Pa., the contract for an alteration and addition to a church located at Ashbourne, Pa., for Mr. George D. Widener, of this city. The alteration includes a remodelling of present church in the interior. The addition will be built of stone, with a slate roof. It will be one story high. Heating, plumbing, painting and interior decorations are included in this contract. Architects will let the following sub-contracts separately: Gas fixtures, church furniture, including altar rail, desk and communion table, pews, stained glass, etc. Mention was made when bids were taken.

Architect B. F. Livezey, 625 Walnut street, has finished plans and is taking bids on an alteration and addition to a residence at Langhorne, Pa., for Mr. Henry Palmer, of Langhorne, Pa. This alteration includes remodeling of present dwelling. This addition will be built of frame, two stories high, with a basement. When work is completed this dwelling will measure about 40 feet on the front, and will have a depth of 50 feet. Heating, gas fixtures, electric wiring and bells, speaking tubes, open tile fireplaces, mantels, plumbing, grille work, painting and papering will be included in the general contract. The cost of this work will be about $3,000. Mention will be made when estimates are opened, as well as the successful bidder.

Architect Frank R. Watson is preparing plans for a bank building which will be erected at Norristown, Pa. This building will be built of brick, stone and iron, with a tile or composition roof. It will be two stories high, and when completed it will measure 60 x 125 feet. The following items will be included in the general contract: Steam heating, electric lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, speaking tubes, tile flooring, iron stairways, with marble treads, sanitary plumbing and toilet room fixtures, including urinals, basins, closets, etc., interior grille work, painting, glazing, hardware, partitions, window grilles, etc. The owner's name is withheld for the present. The cost of this bank will be about $35,000.

Architect S. C. Boyer, 913 Walnut street has finished plans, and will let separate contracts on forty houses, which will be built in the vicinity of Forty-fifth and Chestnut streets. These houses will be built of Pompeian brick, three stories high, with basements. When completed they will have a frontage measuring 16 feet and a depth of 50 feet. They will be built after the colonial style of architecture. Hot-air heating, electrical work, including combination gas fixtures, wiring, bells, annunciators, batteries, speaking tubes, tile and mosaic work, open fireplaces, mantels, grille work, wardrobes, plumbing, bath-room fixtures, painting, interior decorations and papering, will be let separately. The architect will superintend this operation, and will act as the owner. The entire cost of this operation will not exceed $165,000. This work has been noted before.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wanamaker intend to erect at an early day a church mission chapel at Point Breeze, and will present the same to the congregation free of incumbrance.

Contractor Charles Auchter is going to build a two-story brick and brownstone front stable, 23 x 64 feet, at No. 2839 Cambridge street, for Mrs. Emma Bergdoll, owner. Architect A. C. Wagner made the plans, which have been submitted to Structural Engineer Barnes, of the Bureau of Building Inspection.

The Boothby Hotel Company contemplates an early remodelling of the present plant, to the extent of a new front, new passenger elevator, the restaurants to be extended entirely from Chestnut to Clover street, the culinary department to be enlarged and removed from its present location, also general overhauling of the heating and electric plants. The front will be quite a feature of the new work, being what is known as crystalized glass, and very ornate in design. Neither architect nor contractor has been engaged.

Mr. Burnet Herrman, of this city, has awarded the contract for a residence which will be built at 764 South Third street, to Levin & Cohen, contractors. This residence will be built of brick, with a brownstone front. When completed it will be three stories high, with a basement. It will have a frontage of 16 feet and a depth of 70 feet. When finished this dwelling will contain all the latest modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot water heating, electrical work, plumbing, tile work, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, painting and interior decorations. The cost is not known.

Messrs. F. & C. Henry, 1718 Columbia avenue, have finished plans and are now taking sub-contractors' bids on thirteen houses which will be erected in the vicinity of Costello and Stenton avenues. These houses will be two and three stories high, and will have Pompeian brick fronts, with porch, galvanized iron cornice and tin roof. When completed these houses will have a frontage measuring 16 feet, and a depth of about 40 feet. Hot air heating, electrical work, including electric wiring, bells, combination gas fixtures, batteries, etc., speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, tile vestibule, bath-room fixtures, plumbing, drainage, painting, papering and glazing will be let separately. Excavating, masonry and brick work, mill work, roofing and galvanized iron work will also be contracted for. The entire cost of this operation is withheld.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, FEB. 3, 1897.

Fire Association Statement.

Philadelphians can justly feel proud over their many strong and successful insurance companies. If the far reaching influence of this sort of capital was better understood our citizens would be better prepared to meet the fulsome praise that is so often bestowed upon other and less deserving cities.

The statement of the Fire Association of Philadelphia, 407 and 409 Walnut street, is not only a creditable showing for the company and its officers and directors, but is also an evidence that our above statement is correct in every particular.

With nearly six millions of assets, and their value based upon the present low market value of these securities; with a net surplus of over a million above the capital and all liabilities, besides a reserve for re-insurance of not quite $4,000,000, it is self-evident that the company is in a splendid condition to meet its responsibilities, however great.

The immense business of the Fire Association can be better appreciated when it is stated that $204,000 was added to the surplus, while the assets were increased $340,000, and the reserve $100,000. This is certainly a remarkable showing for a dull year in business circles generally.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Already has the work of rebuilding the burned district begun. A permit was taken out for repairing No. 11 North Thirteenth street, and Mr. Wanamaker has given a contract to Charles McCaul for the erection of a new building on the sight of the destroyed Dunlap structure. Other owners are adjusting matters preparatory to commencing work, and the fire site will shortly hum with industry.

Contractors F. J. Holm & Son have been awarded the contract for a boiler house that is to be built on the corner of Forty-first street and Lancaster avenue. This boiler-house will be built of brick, with a slag roof. It will be one story high, and when completed will measure 18 x 40 feet. Excavations, masonry and brick work, roofing, etc., are included in the contract. The entire cost of this boiler-house will not exceed $2,800.

Jno. J. Nesbitt & Co., 805 Master street, plumbing and steam fitting, report the following contracts: Steam and exhaust work on new ice machine engine and boiler for Excelsior Brewing Company, Mervine street, below Montgomery avenue; re-fitting ammonia condensers and boilers for Keystone Ice Manufacturing Company, Eleventh and Dauphin streets; also supplying 80,000 feet of ammonia pipe for Class and Nachod Brewing Company; erecting steam heating plant for Mr. McGillan's saloon, Tenth street and Girard avenue, and saloon for Mr. Geo. H. Schappert, northwest corner of Frankford avenue and Cumberland street. Also making changes in steam pipe and heating plant at Bala Electric Light station.

The Union League, at a meeting on the evening of the 1st inst., took action which means that the club in the near future will make extensions and improvements which will place it at the head of urban clubs as the finest in the world, and covering the greatest expanse of ground of any club in the heart of a great city. C. Stuart Patterson presided at the meeting, which was attended by more than 300 members. The report of the committee to consider the improvements of real estate, which includes R. Dale Benson, Joseph G. Darlington, Joseph S. Neff, George Campbell, C. Tower, Jr., and Harry F. West, was received and considered, and after discussion the recommendations were accepted. The committee's report stated that the whole square of ground bounded by Broad street, Fifteenth street, Moravian street and Sansom street, which, with the exception of one square lot, is owned by the Union League, should be utilized for the purposes of the club house as rapidly as the resources of the League will permit. An Advisory Real Estate Board of nine members was created by the meeting of last night, and this board will consider all the questions relating to the improvements. It is likely that prizes will be offered for the best designs in a competition between architects, and that the selected plans will be models for excellence.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Beaver, Beaver Co., it is probable that an electric light plant will be erected.

—At Chester, Delaware Co., the commission house of J. D. Walton at Second street and Edgemont avenue was partially destroyed last week at a loss of about $10,000.

—At Carlisle, Cumberland Co., it is said that the Carlisle Gas and Water Company will purchase a pump.

—At McKeesport, Allegheny Co., it is stated that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will erect a new depot on Fifth avenue.

—At Potsttown, Montgomery Co., a number of farms has been bought by C. W. Pratt, of New York. It is said a large stock farm or industrial plant will be established.

—At Catawissa, Columbia Co., the bridge over Susquehanna river, recently destroyed by the storm, will be rebuilt. It will be of iron or steel and the estimated cost is $70,000.

—At Jenkintown, Montgomery Co., efforts are being made to organize a trust company, with a capital of $125,000. Ex-Register of Wills Joseph W. Hunter is interested in the project.

—At Hazleton, Luzerne Co., an ordinance has been passed providing for the paving of North Laurel street with vitrified brick. About 4000 square yards will be needed. A Brooks Celian, city clerk.

—At Reading, Berks Co., the Board of Public Works has instructed the City Engineer to draw plans for a bridge at Spring street. Considerable sewer work will be done in the north-western section of the city.

—At Scranton, Lackawanna Co., the plant of the Scranton Illuminating, Heating and Power Company was destroyed by fire on January 31st, at a loss of about $60,000. The plant will be rebuilt at once.

—At Beaver Falls, Beaver Co., a company has secured a charter for a water works. Harry T. Barker, city engineer, can give information.

—Fire destroyed the block of buildings at Thirteenth street and Seventh avenue, on January 31st. The estimated loss is $30,000.

—There is some talk of erecting an iron bridge on the site of the present Brighton wooden structure. Mr. Barker, city clerk, can give details.

—At Pittsburgh, at the recent annual meeting of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad Company, preliminary plans were discussed for the proposed new depot. They were submitted by Colonel J. M. Schoonmaker, vice president, and met with approval. A special meeting will be called in a short time and plans adopted for the proposed building. Work will begin as soon as possible. The cost of the temple which the Ancient Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine will erect at Forbes and Stevenson streets will be about $80,000. It is said that the Central Y. W. C. A., of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, contemplate the erection of a building at Penn avenue and Fifth street, to cost, including the site, about $300,000. The Board of Directors of the Colfax sub-school district, Twenty-second ward, have asked for permission to borrow $30,000 to erect a school building.

The "Albo" Detachable Seat and Cover

Patented Sept. 11, 1894.

It is recognized by experts, conversant with sanitary matters, that every fixture must be as near "all open" as it is possible to make it. With the "Albo" detachable seat we not only do away with the unnecessary and dirt-absorbing woodwork at back of closet going against wall, but also present a seat in every way a perfect sanitary success.

The "Albo" seat allows of an "all open" space at back between closet and wall, thus giving free access around the bowl at all times. Another great advantage which the "Albo" seat possesses is that it can be entirely detached from the earthenware by simply lifting it up, so that all surfaces of the seat and bowl can be kept perfectly sweet and clean.

THE Tenth Annual German-American Ball, under the auspices of the Maennerchor Society, will take place on Monday evening, February 15th, at the Academy of Music, the proceeds to be devoted to the University of Pennsylvania's Free Museum of Science and Art and the Philadelphia Jefferson Maternity Hospital. The programme of the evening, besides dancing, includes orchestral and vocal music, a Pas d'Escaipe by children, the pupils of Prof. Geo. J. Gillespie, and a Quadrille d'Honneur by the patronesses and managers of the ball.

A hearty response on the part of our citizens is anticipated, as heretofore, as the proceeds are always intended to result in much practical good to suffering humanity.

F. R. De PLANQUE,

will have a frontage measuring 22 feet and a depth of 30 feet, and will be three stories high. Hot air heating, plumbing, painting, papering, glazing, and electrical and interior work will be included in this contract when let. The entire cost of this addition, including all sub-contracts, including excavating, masonry and brick work, roofing, mill work and the above items, will not exceed $4000.

Architect A. F. Smith, of Reading, Pa., has finished plans and is now taking bids on a church that is to be built for the Grace United Evangelical Lutheran Church congregation of Reading. This church will be built of stone, with brick backing, and a slate roof. It will measure about 100 x 60 feet, and will be one story high, with gallery and a basement. Steam heating, electric combination fixtures, wiring, etc., plumbing, toilet fixtures, tile work, interior painting, stencil work, etc., also fixtures, including rail desk, altar chairs and pews, are included in the specifications. The entire cost will not exceed $20,000.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

E. H. Clapp & Co. have sold for J. Torrey Allen to E. J. McIlvaine a dwelling and lot on Bryn Mawr avenue, Bala, for $3000.

Harry Galheber has begun to make repairs to the Bacon Church Sunday school, at Disston Hall, on Aramingo street, west of Cedar, recently damaged by fire.

David M. Kittinger, contractor, is going to build a one-story frame extension, 8 by 35 feet, for church purposes, on the north side of Clearfield street, above Fifteenth, for the City Mission Society.

R. C. Ballinger & Co., contractors, will build a two-story brick store and hall, 24 by 60 feet, for the Philadelphia Base Ball Club, at the northwest corner of Broad and Huntingdon streets. It will cost $6000.

Estimates are being received for the erection of a five-story brick factory building, 35½ by 66½ feet, for Edward A. Phillips & Son, owners, at the northwest corner of Tenth and Lombard streets. C. H. Kirk and H. G. Kimball are the architects.

An ordinance has been offered in City Councils to condemn the site of the late fire opposite the Public Buildings, embracing the whole block, for the purpose of a plaza. The matter has been referred to Committee on Public Property.

E. A. Waddy & Co., 1108 Betz Building, have been awarded the contract for furnishing the mill work for the President's reviewing stand for the inaugural parade, to be erected on Pennsylvania avenue, opposite the Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C.

Stacy Reeves & Sons are showing plans and specifications for the reconstruction of the Standard Steel Works, located at Burnham Station, near Lewistown, Pa. It is a branch of the Baldwin Locomotive Works. The improvement includes alterations and additions to several of the shops of the plant.

John R. Wiggins, general contractor, has taken a suite of offices at 1230 Filbert street and fitted them up in a comfortable manner for the conduct of business. Mr. Wiggins has on boards in his office for estimate plans for a large stable and wagon house, to be two stories high, of brick, stone and iron construction, quite large in dimensions and fitted with all modern conveniences. Also drawings for the M. E. Church to be erected in Camden, N. J., and the drawings for a bank office and store building at Norristown, Pa. These have in turn been noted in previous issues of this journal.

Common Councilman Buchholz is the author of another loan ordinance, which will be introduced at the next meeting of Councils. It provides for a loan of $2,000,000 to be expended in paving with improved pavements, such as may be selected by the Department of Public Works, all streets forty feet and less in width in the city. This ordinance is so worded as to cover small streets only, the greatest width being forty feet between house line and house line. The sidewalks, of course, are not to be paved under the provisions of this ordinance, but only the roadway. It is estimated that there are more than 200 miles of these small streets in the city, a great number of which are only paved with rubble-stone.

Plans for the new bridge across the Schuylkill river at Gray's Ferry are rapidly being completed in the Bureau of Surveys. An appropriation of $400,000 has been granted, and an ordinance authorizing the work was introduced in Select Council at the last meeting. The new bridge will be constructed 240 feet north of the old bridge, and will join the two ends of Grays Ferry road in a much straighter line than is afforded by the present bridge. On the dock and sides the new bridge will be similar to the one over Walnut street, and it will be 2000 feet long, reaching over the tracks of the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore and Junction Railroads. It will be a swing bridge, with 75 feet of clear water on each side of the central pier, so as to not interfere with navigation. There is sufficient room between the two bridges to allow the construction of a similar swing, when the Pennsylvania Railroad rebuilds the old bridge.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Scranton, Lackawanna Co., the plans of Mr. Duckworth have been accepted for the new bank building to be erected on Wyoming avenue.

—At Allegheny, it is said that Mayor Geyer will recommend in his annual message that Riverview Park be improved at a cost of about $25,000.

—At Titusville, Crawford Co., the Titusville Electric Traction Co., with a capital of $100,000, will construct about fifteen miles of electric road.

—At Reading, Berks Co., the Building Committee of the School Board has recommended that an additional appropriation of $18,000 be made for the erection of a new school building in the Sixteenth ward.—The bridge at Schlegel's mill will be replanked by the County Commissioners.

—At Lebanon, Lebanon Co., the Board of Water and Light Commissioners has been instructed by City Council to ask for bids and specifications for furnishing wells and all necessary adjuncts, machinery, pipes, etc., for a complete plant guaranteed to supply not less than 1,000,000 gallons of water per day. I. D. Ker, Clerk of Water Board, or George W. Hayes, City Engineer, can give information.

—At Pittsburgh, E. J. Carlisle & Co., Lewis Building, are preparing plans for a new church for the U. P. congregation, of Wilmersburg, Pa. The seating capacity will be about 300.—The Presbyterian congregation, of Wilmersburg (Pittsburgh), will erect a handsome church to cost about $40,000.—Miss Elsie Murcor, Westinghouse Building, has made plans for two handsome colonial dwellings to be erected on Craig street. The first floors will be finished in hard wood, modern conveniences and improvements.

Through New Jersey.

At Trenton, the Masonic Grand Lodge of New Jersey has decided to erect a suitable home for infirm members.

At Jersey City, the Board of Education will ask the Legislature to authorize the issue of bonds to obtain money to erect five new school buildings.

At Atlantic City, Mrs. S. E. McMenamin will make a number of improvements to her property on South Virginia avenue, above Pacific avenue. The large cottage on the site will be altered and improved; a frame dwelling to contain about twenty rooms will be erected to face Virginia avenue, and three three-story brick dwellings, to contain ten rooms each, will be erected to face Presbyterian avenue.

At Asbury Park, Monmouth Co., John M. Dey, of Ocean Grove, has been awarded the contract, by Dr. F. E. Coleman, for the three-story building to be erected at the northwest corner of Fourth avenue and Kingsley street. The structure will be complete in every way, having interior finish of hardwood, sanitary plumbing, and all modern conveniences and improvements. The lower floor will be fitted up handsomely as a drug store, with white tile floor and white and gold wood work. A large porch will extend across the Fourth avenue side. It will have rolling glass sashes and screened by Japanese screens, and will be used for teas, etc.—E. W. Winsor, of Second avenue, has sold his property to Mr. J. J. Jefferson, of New York, who will demolish the present building and erect a handsome structure to take its place.

Through Maryland

At Baltimore, an ordinance has been introduced in the City Council asking for an appropriation of $50,000 for the purchase of a site and the erection of a new school building. The Mayor can give information.—Bids will be received by the Water Department until February 15th, for a number of stop valves.

—The First Branch of Councils has passed an ordinance to repave Caroline street with block asphalt to cost about $60,000. The Second Branch has passed an ordinance to repave Eutaw street with Belgian block to cost about $80,000.—The following are the most important permits to date: To Henry Knafely & Son to erect a three-story brick warehouse northeast corner Baltimore and Sharp streets; to W. J. Daley to erect four three-story frame dwellings, Baker street, between 8th and 9th streets; receivers of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Co. to erect brick, wood and steel baggage room and two train sheds, west side Howard street, between Camden and Barre streets; to J. R. Shaw to erect two three-story brick dwellings southwest side Park avenue, between Wilson and McMeekin streets; to Wm. J. Clendenin to erect eight three-story brick dwellings south side North avenue, between Broadway and Bond streets; to Otto Schaub to erect three two-story brick dwellings on the west side of Calhoun street, between Hollins and Baltimore streets.

Architect Notes.

Architect Frank Watson, 518 Walnut street, is preparing preliminary plans for a residence that is to be built in Frankford, Pa. The details will be given later. The owner's name is withheld for the present.

Plans have been prepared by E. C. Tritten, architect, 410 Walnut street, for the erection of a twelve-story office building, at Twelfth and Walnut streets. The building, it is said, will be undertaken by a syndicate and will cost about $600,000.

Estimates are wanted on the construction of a handsome six-stall stable for the country residence of Barclay H. Warburton, at Jenkintown, Pa. The plans originally drawn by Architect John H. Windrim have been revised and they now show a two-story Queen Anne structure, 36.4 x 75.2, the materials in construction being a rough cast of pebble wash.

Architect H. J. Shumway, of Atlantic City, N. J., is preparing plans for an addition to a hotel building situated on New Jersey avenue, Atlantic City, for Mr. Charles Meyers, of that place. This addition will consist of adding two stories to present building. It will be built of frame, with a shingle roof. All the modern improvements and conveniences will be included in the general contract. The cost of this addition, including all sub-contracts, will amount to $100,000.

Stearns & Castor, Bourse Building, have finished plans for an alteration and addition to a residence situated in Frankford, Philadelphia, for Mr. Housemann. The alteration includes a remodelling of the interior. The addition includes a third story. This story will be built of slate and shingles. The cost of this alteration and addition will not exceed $3,000. Same architects have plans for a number of other jobs of work which will be started at an early day.

Architects Hazelhurst & Huckle, Girard Building, have finished plans for a residence which will be erected at Broad and Thompson streets for John G. Caruth, 1230 North Thirtieth street. This residence will be constructed of brick and stone, with a tile roof. It will be four stories high, with a basement. All the modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot water heating, electric combination gas and electric light fixtures, electric wiring, bells, annunciators, batteries, etc., speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, tile work, plumbing, and interior work.

Architects Cope & Stewardson, 320 Walnut street, have finished plans for a residence that is to be built at Kane, Pa. This residence will be built of brick, with a tile or a slate roof. It will measure 45 x 110 feet, and when finished it will be three stories high. All the modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot water heating, electric lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, speaking tubes, tile and mosaic work, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, plumbing, bath-room fixtures, including tubs, basins, closets, etc., bronze hardware and locks, painting, papering and interior work, are included in the specifications. The cost of this residence, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $14,000.

Contractors and Builders Wm. Steele & Son, 506 Walnut street, are taking sub-bids for a handsome residence that will be built on Lehigh avenue for Mr. A. W. Perkinson, of this city. This residence will be built of brick and stone, four stories high, with a tile roof. It will have a frontage measuring 20 feet and a depth of about 80 feet. All the improvements and conveniences are included in the specifications, together with excavating, masonry and brick work, millwork, roofing, tile work, plumbing, hardware, painting, papering, etc. The cost of this dwelling will amount to $18,000. Architect F. S. Newman, Fidelity Building, prepared plans, and will superintend the construction of same.

Michael B. Silberstein, architect, 709 South Fourth street, has prepared the following plans: Seven houses on Carpenter street, below Tenth, and six on Midlin street, below Sixteenth, for J. Kaiser, owner; eight on South Second street, corner of Congress, and a four-story house at Third and Catharine streets, for D. Kansfky, owner; two houses 707-9 South Fourth street, J. Fleet, owner; one house, 761 South Fourth street, S. Goldberg, owner; one, 938 South Fourth street, R. Schwarz, owner; two on Griswold street, M. Friedman, owner; three, corner Fourth and Bainbridge streets, S. Silberstein, owner; one, 718 South Third street, I. Mizeretsky, owner; one, 818 South Third street, A. Kraus, owner. Plans are also being prepared for a Synagogue of Temple Bnai Rubim.

Architects Hewitt Brothers, Bullitt Building, are making plans for an addition to an institute located at Thirty-sixth street and Woodland avenue for the Wistar Institute of Anatomy. This addition will be built of brick, with terra cotta trimmings and a tin roof. This building will be three stories high, with a basement. When completed this addition will measure 45 by 63 feet. The following items will be included in the general contract: Steam heating, electrical work, including wiring, bells, annunciators, speaking tubes, plumbing and drainage, toilet room fixtures, painting and glazing. The entire cost of this building, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $20,000. The same architects are preparing final drawings for a Home for Old Men that is to be built at Thirty-ninth and Baring streets. This home will be built of brick, with terra cotta trimmings, etc. It will be four stories high, with a basement. When completed it will measure 70 x 90 feet. The latest improvements and conveniences, such as hot water heating, electrical work, including lighting, wiring, batteries, etc.; tile work, plumbing, painting, etc., will be included in this contract.

A new and handsome road house for accommodation of bicyclists and the public is to be erected on the new path now nearly completed between this and Atlantic City, N. J. The location of the structure will be at East Hammonton, 30 miles from Philadelphia, and the drawings have been prepared by Architects Schermerhorn & Reinhold, 439 Walnut street, and the present intention is to begin the work of building as soon as the weather permits. The house will have a frontage of 60 feet and a depth of 80 feet, and will be surrounded by spacious grounds, on which will be laid out a set of golf links and fields for outdoor games. It will be of brick to the top of the first story, and frame above, with slate or tile roofing. The style of architecture is colonial, with interior finish of chestnut and fitted with all modern improvements. The first floor will be flush with the ground, enabling riders to enter directly into the large apartment which has been provided for the storage of wheels. In one end of this is to be the repair shop, and adjoining it the toilet-rooms and shower baths. Directly facing the entrance a wide staircase leads to the spacious hall above, into which open the cafe, dining-room, and a well-lighted and ventilated lounging-room containing the office and a cosy nook in which is a large open fire-place. On the same floor, in the rear of the hall, are the shower-baths and retiring-rooms for the use of the ladies. In an annex at the extreme rear of the main building will be the kitchen, serving-rooms, and servants' quarters. The two floors above are to be arranged as sleeping rooms for permanent guests. About the house will extend a porch 12 feet wide, so arranged that it may be enclosed with glass sashes during the cold weather. At a short distance will be a dancing pavilion and band stand with small club-house and bicycle track. The grounds have been arranged and work will soon be commenced.

The Philadelphia Bourse versus Wind.

An estimable contemporary of this city, known as the Grocery World, and which justly merits a high place in the grocery trade, on the 8th instant took exceptions to our editorial on the Bourse, which appeared in our issue of January 20th. We quote the clipping in its entirety in order that we may not be charged with having distorted its meaning:

"More Anti-Bourse Wind.

"In a recent issue of the American Grocer, the Philadelphia correspondent made an attack upon the Philadelphia Bourse, which the Grocery World disapproved by indisputable facts and figures. The only reply which the American Grocer has been able to make to the showing of this journal has been through the reproduction of another attack upon the Bourse from the REAL ESTATE RECORD, which, divested of the wind and chaff with which it abounds, can be summed up in the statement that the Bourse stock, which is at par at $50, is now quoted at $10. This is perfectly true, but what of it? Everybody who knows anything whatever about the subject, and will admit the truth, knows that this depreciation has been caused simply by the sales of shares in order to secure floor privileges. If the calumniators of the Bourse would spend the time they waste in cooking up their empty attacks in increasing the prosperity of the institution, they would be better employed."

Now if the statement of the Grocery World were true, it would be a pity; but it is neither truthful, probable, possible, nor consistent.

Our friend, the estimable editor and proprietor of the Grocery World, who is also a director of the Bourse, is entirely too bright as a business man as well as too great intellectually (and we say it with sober earnestness) to justify the opinion that he believes, or that he thinks any one believes, that a valuable franchise which he has named "floor privileges," going with the sales of stock of any kind, would depreciate its market value.

Does not the Grocery World, through its statement, as quoted above, really make the present status of the Philadelphia Bourse infinitely worse when it emphasizes, as a fact, that its exalted floor privileges are the true cause and the only cause for the present pitiful market value of the Bourse stock?

It must be admitted that the Grocery World either shows a lamentable ignorance of the influences which control the value of stocks of all kinds, or that its loyal zeal as an officer of the handsomest office building in the city, overshadows its best business judgment and its willingness to go on record as the author of the stupidest piece of sophistry ever perpetrated by any journal, great or small, in the history of the country.

The subscribers and owners of the Bourse stock would be gratified if they could be enlightened as to the full scope of these valuable "floor privileges" which the Grocery World cites as the potent influence which has driven the stock down from $50 to $10 per share, a decline of 80 per cent.; and if a withdrawal of these privileges would enhance the value of the stock, they would no doubt cheerfully and cordially endorse the proposition, if made.

But what are these privileges? It is a delightful privilege, perhaps, to be able to walk through the gates of the Bourse floors without being reminded that you are an intruder; and having been permitted to enter within the sacred precinct, one can imagine the enjoyable pleasure to be derived from a critical examination of the cemented floors, the empty walls, the stately pillars, the infectious emptiness and the decided absence of business life outside of that shown by the Commercial Exchange, which occupies a section under the north gallery, or perchance the dexterous manipulation of a piece of chalk by two boys making frantic efforts to keep pace with the changes of the stock ticker, may enchant the visitor enough to justify most any price for the stock; but will some one name a few of the purported business advantages to be obtained through floor privileges.

Have the managers of the Bourse made a single effort in keeping with the many promises made by the Hon. Edwin S. Stuart, who presided over the great meeting which was held at the Academy of Music in the interest of the proposed Bourse while he was Mayor of the city, or was the ex-Mayor's opening speech all wind?

Is the Hon. John C. Bullitt willing to have his brilliant effort, which so thoroughly enchanted a splendid audience on that self-same evening, stigmatized as wind? Will the Hon. John Wanamaker agree with the Grocery World, while it asserts that any effort to make the Bourse managers live up to the promises and purposes which he so clearly and specifically enunciated as the principles under which he, with others, urged the public to surrender a million of dollars, is all wind?

What is the difficulty? What is there to prevent the managers of the Bourse from carrying into effect the purposes for which it was organized? They surely do not imagine that the stockholders subscribed for their shares with the view of owning an unprofitable office building, or with a purpose of making lucrative positions for a few estimable gentlemen?

The subscribers to the stock were seriously earnest in their belief that the purposes of the proposed Bourse were patriotic, and the worthy gentlemen we have named, as well as many others who lent their character and reputation as well as their eloquence and efforts to the scheme, were honest, and if we, in our efforts to have the managers give us what was promised, are to be classified under the caption of "Anti-Bourse Wind," what is to become of those who so earnestly and publicly spoke in its behalf?

Removal.

W. Hasell Wilson, Jr., Philadelphia agent for the Sayre & Fisher Brick Co. and the Royal Cement Plaster Co., of St. Louis, has removed his office from 388 Philadelphia Bourse to 612 Drexel Building.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Joshua M. Holmes, 1233 Girard avenue, has purchased from William G. Price the block of ground on the west side of Thirty-first street, from Cumberland to Huntingdon. Mr. Holmes contemplates building at once a row of attractive two and three-story dwellings, for the erection of which he is now receiving bids at his office.

Bids are being received from sub-contractors by Phillip Auns, of this city, for the erection of a large building at Asbury Park. The structure will be put up at the juncture of Cookman and Asbury avenues, and will measure 215 x 250 feet. The building is intended to include a theatre, stores and offices, and will cost $250,000.

Chief Engineer Russell Thayer has reported to the Committee on Plans and Improvements of the Fairmount Park Commission improvements amounting to $181,065, the items of which are as follows: $5000 around the Washington Monument at Green street; $67,000 for grounds south of Girard avenue, west of the Zoo, $12,500 being for bicycle paths; $57,000 for tree planting and sodding in various parts of the Park; $11,000 for asphalt around the parade grounds, and to the Park at Dauphin street entrance; $7500 at Fifty-second street entrance; $33,000 for inclosed bicycle paths along both sides of Belmont avenue. As there was only $100,000 available for improvements the committee recommended the work at Green street entrance and on the grounds west of the Zoo.

520 Walnut Street.

Charles G. Emery, of this city, has purchased a lot on Vassar avenue, Swarthmore, from Dr. Cotting, upon which he intends to erect a handsome residence in the Spring.

George W. Bates will begin at once the erection of five dwellings on the northeast side of New street, southeast of Mulberry street, Frankford. They are to be two stories high.

Charles Auchter, contractor for the Perry stone and office building, at the southeast corner of Sixteenth and Chestnut streets, has begun work by clearing the site for operations. The plans are by John F. Snuckert & Son, architects, 49 North Thirteenth street, and have been frequently noted in this journal.

W. F. Albrecht begins work shortly on an operation at Thirty-one and one-half and Huntingdon streets, consisting of a store and nine dwellings, at a cost estimated in the neighborhood of $10,000. The buildings will be constructed uniformly of brick, with brownstone facings, and will each be two stories in height.

William M. Steele & Son are now making alterations to the Pennsylvania Steel Works, on the east side of Twenty-fourth street and south side of Pennsylvania avenue. The alterations include the erection of an irregular-shaped addition and extension of walls. The improvements, costing $80,000, are made necessary by the construction of the Reading subway.

B. Ketcham's Sons have begun the erection of eight handsome dwellings on the south side of Chestnut street, west of Thirty-sixth. They are to be four stories high, and measure 18.9 x 85 feet. They will be constructed of brick, with fronts of stone and brick, at a total cost of $80,000. William Weightman is the owner. The plans were prepared by Architect Willis G. Hale, 1326 Chestnut street.

Hirsh & Brother, umbrella manufacturers, are having plans prepared for a new building on the site of the one destroyed in the great fire at Thirteenth and Market streets on January 26th. The firm have taken for the present the former Muhr building, at the southwest corner of Broad and Race streets, and have resumed business there recently with four hundred hands. The new building, it is said, will be a reproduction of the old one.

Cornelius Kiely, contractor, is about to build for William D. Neilson, owner, two two-story brick dwellings, each 15½ by 60 feet, and a temporary carpenter shop on the south side of Somerset street, west of Gaul. Also a two-story brick store and dwelling, 16½ by 50 feet, at the southwest corner of those streets; also for Thomas Burns, owner, a two-story brick dwelling, 18 by 62 feet, on the south side of Somerset street, west of Gaul. Samuel Goldberg, owner, intends to build a three-story brick dwelling for two families, 15.9 by 72 feet, at 761 South Fourth street.

At Overbrook (city), twenty houses are to be erected, Hagey & Kemover, Wayne Trust Building, receiving bids until the 20th inst. for material and sub-contract work. No contracts let at time of writing. Houses will be located at Sixty-second street and Lancaster avenue, will be built in pairs, of brick and stone, four different styles—Queen Anne, English, Colonial and French. Plans by Schermerhorn & Reinhold, 430 Walnut street. Plans can be seen at office, at Wayne Junction. Electric light, bells, hot air, sanitary plumbing, tile bath rooms, hardwood finish, hardwood mantels and wardrobe, speaking tubes, slate roof, open fireplace; to sell for $90,000.

Strawbridge & Clothier, of this city, have, it is understood, just purchased the two adjoining properties on the west, facing on Market street, and, at an early day, will take measures to add these to their already large house, at Eighth and Market streets. Of course, any new addition will be, in a measure, in conformity with the present structures in architectural features.

Isaac Walker & Sons, 1215 Filbert street, are taking bids on a Latin school that will be built at Cambridge, Mass., for the "Latin School of Cambridge." This educational institution will be built of brick, stone and iron, with slate roof. It will be three stories high, with basement. The following items are included in the specifications: Steam heating, electrical lighting and wiring, plumbing, toilet-room fixtures, such as urinals, closets, etc., tile work, sliding partitions, iron work, painting, interior work and glazing. The entire cost of the building, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $300,000. Plans were prepared by a New York architect.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

At Pittsburgh, Joseph E. Neal, 215½ Fourth avenue, is preparing plans for a number of buildings, including a hotel and dwelling on the Fort Wayne Railroad, two public buildings in Maine, and a dwelling in Allegheny.—W. G. Carr, Esq., will erect a dwelling on Howe street from plans by D. Knox Miller, Hostetter Building.—The Commercial National Bank Building, destroyed by fire a few weeks since, will be rebuilt from plans prepared by Alden & Harlow. The new building will be a handsome structure, furnished with all modern improvements, and will cost $40,000.—The contract for the erection of the Presbyterian Church's new lecture-room has been let to Clark, Richmond & Co. for $75,000.—The estimate of the County Comptroller for Allegheny county includes $70,000 for thirteen bridges to be built during the Summer of '97.

Through New Jersey.

At Crawford, Union Co., the congregation of the Roman Catholic Church will erect a new edifice. Rev. James P. Smith can give information.

At Rutherford, Bergen Co., the Erie Railroad Company will erect a brick station to cost $30,000. George Archer, 26 Cortland street, New York City, has made the plans.

Through Maryland.

At Easton, Talbot Co., the county court-house will be improved at a cost of about $8,000. George H. Trax can give information. The plans were prepared by Henry Brauns, of Baltimore.

Washington, D. C.

A syndicate, of which Arthur Cowswill, the contractor, is a member, contemplate the purchase of a site on Pennsylvania avenue on which to erect a large building for lodge purposes. The estimated cost is about $100,000.—J. W. Somerville, of the Mt. Pleasant Citizens Association, has asked the Commissioners to have an appropriation made of $4,500 to adequately heat the Johnson school building.—Bids will be received until February 15th for the erection of the new Western high school building in Square 1, 2, 3, between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth streets.

"A word to the wise is sufficient,"
Is a maxim we've frequently heard;
And now what we want is a maxim
To tell us just what is the word.

Well, the word is only a short one.
And its meaning is far from obscure:
It enjoins 'll dutiful fathers,
While they still have good health, to

Architect Notes.

Isaac Pursell, architect, 119 South Fourth street, is making plans for a church to be erected at Thirty-second street and Montgomery avenue.

Lewis Elliott has started to build a two-story $5000 stable, measuring 43 x 58 feet, on the east side of Thirty-eighth street, south of Girard avenue, for the Robert Smith Pale Ale Brewing Company, from plans drawn by Architect Otto Wolf.

Architects Hales & Ballinger have completed plans for eight residences that are to be built at Melrose for Thomas Henry, Jr., of Ashbourne. They are to be three and a half stories high, and measure 21 x 65 feet. They are to be built of stone and frame in the colonial style of architecture.

Plans have been submitted to Structural Engineer Barnes, of the Bureau of Building Inspection, by H. R. Warren, builder and architect, providing for the erection of an apartment house at the southwest corner of Broad and Oxford streets. The structure is to measure 99 by 28 feet, and in front it will be six stories high, and only four stories in height in the rear. Indiana limestone is to be used in construction up to the second story, and above brick will be used. The building will have an ornamental roof. Previously noted in this journal.

Architect Wilson Eyre, 927 Chestnut street, has finished plans for an apartment house that is to be built in this city for Dr. F. W. Leydy, of this city. This apartment house is to be nine stories high, with a basement and sub-cellar. When completed it will measure 90 by 115 feet. It will be constructed of brick, iron and steel, with terra cotta trimmings and a tile roof. The following items are to be included in the general contract: Steam heating, electric lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, elevators, speaking tubes, interior decorations, including tile and mosaic work, artistic papering and stencil work, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, plumbing, toilet-room fixtures, including tubs, basins, urinals and closets, painting and glazing. This work has been noted in this journal some time ago.

Messrs. M. P. Wells & Co., Thirteenth and Walnut streets, have plans in their office and are taking sub-bids on eight houses that are to be erected in this city. These houses will be built of brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornices and tin roofs. When finished they will have a frontage measuring 15 feet and a depth of 50 feet. They will be three stories high. All the latest and most modern improvements are to be introduced. Architects Hales and Ballinger, 1200 Chestnut street, prepared the plans.

Wm. H. Free, architect, has taken a fine suite of offices at 1237 Arch street, and is prepared to receive his friends and patrons. Mr. Free has on boards plans for several operations which we shall report as soon as drawings are completed. Mr. Free, the Elephant Bazaar company's engineer, has in preparation plans for an Amusement Palace, which will be built at Willow Grove Park in time for the opening of the season. The structure will measure 100 x 200 feet, one-story high, and it will have a flat roof. It is understood that the management intends to utilize the roof for a garden. The plans also include an elephant, which, it is stated, will be 100 feet high, similar to the one at South Atlantic City, also a band stand, large casino and other general amusement buildings. The president of the company is Lane P. Cranston, 1001 Chestnut street.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, FEB. 24, 1897.

JUDGE MITCHELL, of the Supreme Court, has filed a decision to the effect, that mechanics' liens against new buildings must show by apt and sufficient words that it is for work or material furnished to a new building, to indicate its class, although it does not use the statutory phrase, erection and construction, and the indication of its class is the essence of the requirement. But that indication it must give. As to the other class of liens, the justice says: "So far as regards the more recently authorized liens for alterations and repairs, we are clearly of opinion that it must state on its face the class to which it belongs." The claim on which the decision is based was deficient for the additional reason that it was filed by a sub-contractor and contained only a lumping charge; that such a claim is invariably bad, and that where it is possible to itemize prices, it must be done.

Trynby's New Furniture Store.

If you wanted to buy a horse you would, unless an excellent judge yourself, very naturally seek a dealer in whom you could place confidence without fear of deception.

If this measure of security is necessary in horses, why is it not needful in the purchase of a considerable amount of anything you know little or nothing about.

Furniture is a conundrum to most people and the average buyer must go it blind.

Enos D. Trynby has been identified with the furniture trade in this city as a manufacturer and dealer for thirty-five years. He has recently opened a store at 1009-11 Market street. His stock represents the best combination of taste, elegance and quality to be gleaned from the leading manufacturers, and prices are guaranteed. He not only merits the fullest confidence, but has been receiving it from our best citizens for many years.

Architect Notes.

J. W. Anshutz has been appointed acting architect and supervisor of school buildings for the Board of Education pending further consideration of the charges against Architect Joseph D. Austin by the investigating committee.

Hales & Ballinger have prepared plans for four pairs of colonial style stone and frame dwellings, each two-and-a-half stories and 21 x 73 feet, to be built at Melrose, Pa., by Thomas Henry, Jr., owner. They will have steam heat, electric and gas work and all the latest modern conveniences. Mr. Henry is receiving estimates at his office at Melrose.

Architect T. F. Miller, 1231 Arch street, is preparing plans for a residence that will be built at Willow Grove. This dwelling will be built of brick and stone, with a shingle roof. It will be three stories high, and when completed this residence will have a frontage of 20 feet and a depth of 60 feet. The owner's name is withheld for the present. All the latest modern improvements and conveniences will be introduced. The estimated cost of this house will not exceed $5000. Fuller details will be given as plans progress. Mention will be made when bids are taken.

G. W. and W. D. Hewitt, architects, Bullitt Building, are preparing the drawings for the new Hirsch stores to be erected upon the site of those so lately destroyed by fire. The structures will likely be increased in stories, but in style of architecture, much like the former plan. It will be supplied with passenger and freight elevators, steam and electric plants, (best heating and ventilation and sanitary plumbing, as well as every modern convenience. Estimates will likely be made on the work within the next three weeks and work pushed to completion.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

William Adams & Co. are going to have a two-story brick show-room and pattern shop built on the west side of Ninth street, below Girard avenue. It will measure 21 x 105 feet.

Stacey, Reeves & Sons, 1611 Filbert street, are showing plans and specifications for several buildings for Princeton University. They include a dwelling for Professor Henry and a club-house for the Ivy Club.

Warner H. Jenkins & Co., who are receiving estimates for the erection of a guard-house at West Point, will begin work immediately on the erection of a new church building for the Camden Methodist Episcopal congregation on Broadway, Camden.

Thomas J. Henry, builder and operator, announces that he is ready to receive estimates for all branches of work in the construction of forty-four handsome two and three story houses, to be erected by him on Fifty-fifth street and Woodland avenue.

John Hevener, contractor, is about to build for Edwin S. Radley, owner, nineteen three-story brick and brownstone dwellings, each 15 x 54 feet, on the east side of Park avenue, north of Rising Sun avenue. The operation will include an outlay of about $60,000.

Builders M. L. Heist & Son are going to put up seventeen two-story brick and brownstone front dwellings and a three-story brick store and dwelling, to have fronts of the same material, in the Thirty-eighth ward. The houses will each measure 14.6 x 40 feet, and they will be built on the east and west sides of Mather street below Westmoreland street, and the store and dwelling will be erected on the west side of Mather street below Westmoreland street. It will measure 15 x 46.6 feet.

Owner John D. Pharaoh is going to build twenty-nine three-story brick and brownstone front dwellings in the Thirty-seventh ward. Fourteen of the houses will be put up on the west side of Twelfth street, below Somerset, and each will measure 16 x 55 feet, while eleven will be erected on the south side of Somerset street, west of Twelfth. These houses will each be 16 x 45 feet. On the west side of Twelfth street, below Somerset, four houses, each to measure 17 x 55 feet, are to be built.

It is given out that the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company has let contracts for the establishment in Philadelphia of an electric lighting plant. The central station will be located at the Twenty-fourth and Chestnut streets depot, and will extend to and light the company's yards, at Race street; the Fifty-eighth street round-house, the Jackson street coal wharves and piers Nos. 62 and 63. Two Thomson-Houston and one General Electric generators will be used respectively for arc and incandescent lighting. The company is already operating twelve plants in various places along its lines to furnish light for its own use.

Owner and Builder Harris Reisor took out a permit to erect a three-story brick dwelling, 16 x 44 feet, at No. 767 South Fourth street. The Bureau of Building Inspection has decided that in some cases where a permit is asked for the erection of a dwelling, an affidavit, attached to which is the name of the owner, must be presented. Such was the case before the permit was issued to Reisor. In this affidavit Reisor says that he will not permit the house to be occupied by more than two families, neither will he permit it to be used as a tenement house without first having such alterations made as required by Acts of Assembly. In case Reisor sells the house, he further says, he will impose the same conditions upon the purchaser. These restrictions will be binding on his heirs and assigns.

James Mann & Co., Thirtieth and Locust streets, have been awarded the contract for furnishing the limestone work for a dwelling for Mr. John H. Dearnley, at Roxborough, Pa.

Charles McCane, contractor, 10 North Eleventh street, will rebuild a number of the burned stores on the west side of Thirteenth, above Market street. Work will start at once on clearing the debris and foundations.

Innes Brothers, steam and hot water heating and ventilating, have removed from 2139 Ella street to 461-63 East Girard avenue. They have the contract for heating the residence of Dr. Franklin Brady, 1815 Frankford avenue, and residence of J. Hayes Gallaher at Yeadon, Pa.

Excelsior Elevator Company, 18 South Broad street, have been awarded the contract for equipping the elevators in the Girls' Normal School and the Girls' High School and annex to Girls' High School, with their car-lifting device. Also contract for putting in elevator in building 1516 Chestnut street.

The Etherington Co., 618 Fidelity Building, have been appointed agents for the Upton Arc Lamp. The special features of this lamp are that the lamp burns 150 hours without change of carbons on 4 1/2 amperes. No carbon rods to clean. No parts to wear or gum. No mechanism. No shadow, absolutely steady, white light.

Mr. Edwin S. Cramp, of Philadelphia, will erect a factory in Rockford, Ill., for the manufacture of ship padding, etc. This factory will be built of brick and iron, four stories high. Excavations, masonry and brick work, roofing, painting and glazing, as will also the iron work, which will include columns, beams, separators, etc., will be included in the general contract.

Alexander Cowan, owner and builder, proposes to begin an extensive dwelling operation in West Philadelphia by starting work on the erection of forty two-story brick houses on the ground bounded by Markoe and Forty-eighth streets, Seneca street and Westminster avenue, each about 16 x 50 feet. The first of the houses will be built on the Forty-seventh-and-a-half street front.

The Union Presbyterian Church, on Thirteenth street, below Spruce, has been sold to Dr. C. H. S. Littleton. The edifice measures 60 x 88 feet, and it is the owner's intention to erect a new building in its stead, for which plans are now being prepared. There are a number of churches which have been abandoned by their congregations, and it is believed that in the near future large office or other buildings will be put up on the sites which they now occupy.

Charles McCaul has received orders from Mr. John Dobson to tear down the old Gould store at the northeast corner of Ninth and Market streets, and erect thereon a handsome eight-story building, size, 28 x 140 feet, and is now receiving bids from the various sub-contractors on the same. Bids will be received in two ways, one for steel construction, which will be entirely fire-proof, and another for the ordinary wood construction. The building will present a very handsome appearance, and will be adapted to a retail business. The first and second stories will be nearly all glass; columns dividing glass panels will be richly ornamented iron; in the upper stories will be a series of bay windows. The main body of the building will be composed of Pompeian brick and Pompeian terra cotta. There will be a passenger elevator and a stairway at the Market street entrance; in the rear of the building will be a freight elevator, toilet rooms and stairway inclosed in brick walls.

Upon the result of a meeting of the stockholders of the Land, Title and Trust Company, to be held March 23d, will depend the erection of a handsome office building on the southwest corner of Broad and Chestnut streets. It will be remembered that a short time ago the property on that corner was purchased by Messrs. Widener and Elkins for a consideration said to be considerably over $750,000. The purchasers have made an offer of the property to the Land, Title and Trust Company at the same figure. The meeting on March 23d is for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to increase the capital stock from $1,000,000 to double that amount. If the increase is voted, as it probably will be, the offer of Messrs. Widener and Elkins will be accepted and the money derived from the sale of the new stock devoted to the purchase of the site and the erection of a magnificent building thereon. President William R. Nicholson, of the company, says that a number of architects have prepared and submitted plans for a new building, although none would be decided upon until after the stockholders' meeting in March, and that the cost of the structure has not been definitely settled. It is assured that the building will be a credit to the locality. President Nicholson also stated that there was little if any doubt that the stockholders would vote in favor of the needed increase. The company's business is largely with lawyers and others who have moved or are moving to the immediate neighborhood of the city building and the company would benefit largely by following them. Messrs. Widener and Elkins are large stockholders in the Land Title and Trust Company. The new stock, if voted, will be offered for sale to the present stockholders only.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAR. 3, 1897

Messrs. P. H. FAIRLAMB & SONS, dealers in cement, plaster, bar sand, etc., 115 to 121 South Thirtieth street, have just made a valuable acquisition to the firm's working force in the services of Mr. Henry Longcope, for many years the efficient secretary of the Quaker City Mortar Company, of this city.

Mr. Longcope's business experience among the building trades, together with his characteristic energy as well as his knowledge of the wants of builders, must, in a marked degree, make itself felt in largely increasing the business of his employers, as well as extending the popularity of the concern. He justly merits the greatest success, and we trust his new connection will be pleasant and profitable to both.

Architect Notes.

Frank R. Watson, architect, has taken a fine suite of offices on the fifth floor of 1308 Chestnut street, the new Hamilton & Deisinger Building, which is now being occupied by that firm. Mr. Watson will hereafter be glad to meet his clients and friends at the above address.

Engineer William Brown, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Broad and Market streets, has finished plans for an iron bridge that is to be built at Columbia, Pa. This bridge will be 7,000 feet long, and will be constructed of stone and iron. The contract for the masonry work has been awarded to Drayton & Stratton, 1326 Chestnut street.

Henry D. Dagitt, architect, 706 Walnut street, has made plans for construction of a large manufacturing building, to be erected at 932 Race street, for M. Bear. The structure will be four stories high, brick, glass and iron front, fitted with all conveniences, freight lifts, tubes, bells, etc. Estimates are being made in

William R. Dougherty's office, 1804 Sansom street.

Architect George I. Lovatt, 424 Walnut street, has finished plans and awarded the general contract for the erection of a stable at Torresdale, Pa., for Mrs. Mamie M. Coates, of that place, to Russell R. Robinson, of Torresdale. This stable will be built of brick and frame, with a shingle roof. It will be two stories high. When finished it will be fitted up with the latest improved stable fittings, including patent feed boxes, stalls, etc.

Steelman & English, of Ocean City, N. J., have been awarded the contract for a store and dwelling that is to be built at Ocean City, N. J., for Mrs. A. W. Steinmetz, of Philadelphia. This dwelling and store will be built of brick and frame, and will be two and a half stories high, and when completed will measure 20 x 48 feet. The latest modern conveniences and improvements will be introduced. The entire cost of this store and dwelling will be $8000.

Plans and specifications for a school house, to be erected at the northwest corner of Fifteenth and Norris streets, have been placed on boards of contractors for estimate; also, another to be built at the corner of Seymour and Knox streets (22d section). Each of these are to be three stories high and basements, to be of brick and stone construction, with all modern improvements and conveniences on interior. Artificial stone pavements and cellar floors, electric bells, steam heat, tin roofs, steel ceilings are all included in bidding. Drawings are in offices of William R. Dougherty, 1804 Sansom street, and other offices.

Builder and Contractor Philip Ames, Bourse Building, has been awarded the contract for a hall building that is to be built on Eighth street, below South street, for Cohen & Co., of this city. This building will be built of brick and ornamental iron work, with a tin roof; will be two stories high, with basement. The following latest improvements and conveniences are included in the contract: Steam heating, electric lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, etc., tile and mosaic work, plumbing, toilet-room fixtures, painting interior work and glazing. The cost will probably reach $19,000. The plans are private. Formerly mentioned.

Architect John Ord, 1891 Chestnut street, has furnished plans and is taking bids on a store and residence that is to be erected at 2726 Germantown avenue, for Mr. Thomas P. Hunter, of this city. This store and dwelling will be built of brick, with galvanized iron cornice and a tin roof. When completed it will be three stories high, with a basement. It will have a frontage measuring 20 feet and a depth of 63 feet. Hot air heating, electric combination gas fixtures, wiring, etc., speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, plumbing, glazing with plate and plain glass, painting and papering, etc., will be included. M. P. Wells, Thirteenth and Walnut streets, is estimating and taking out estimates.

Architects Hewitt Bros., Bullitt Building, are making sketches for a factory and an office building that is to be built on Thirteenth street, near Filbert street, for the Gibson estate, in care of the Fidelity Trust and Safe Deposit Company, 333 Chestnut street. This building will be built of brick and iron, with terra cotta trimmings. It will be nine or ten stories high, with a basement and a sub-cellar. The following items will be introduced: Steam heating, electric lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, etc., elevators, tile and mosaic work, plumbing, toilet-room fixtures, including urinals, basins, patent flush closets, etc., iron and grille work, including elevator enclosures, etc., painting, interior work, glazing, etc. Mention will be made when final drawings are commenced.

It is understood that Daniel G. Burnham, of Chicago, has been selected as architect for the new building of the Land, Title & Trust Company, at the southwest corner of Broad and Chestnut streets. Mr. Burnham's reputation is worldwide, he having been the consulting architect of the World's Fair. He has probably erected more large office buildings than any architect in the country, and his field of operations includes Chicago, St. Louis, New York, Boston, Cleveland and Buffalo. The tenants of the properties at Nos. 1400-02-04-06 Chestnut street are leaving, and by Monday next it is expected they will all have removed. The contract for the demolition of the buildings, for which bids have been received, is expected to be announced by William T. B. Roberts in a day or two, so that the work of tearing the buildings down can begin on Monday next.

Architect E. F. Bertolette, Heed Building, is preparing plans for an addition to the hospital located at Norristown, Pa. This addition will be built of brick, three stories high, with a basement. It will have a tin roof. The following items are to be included in this contract: Steam heating, electrical work, tile and mosaic work, plumbing, painting, glazing, toilet room fixtures, including urinals, basins, closets, etc. This addition will be built for the Charity Hospital, of Norristown, Pa. Mention will be made when bids are taken. The cost will not exceed $15,000.—The same architect is making preliminary sketches and plans for a hospital that is to be built at Phoenixville, Pa. This hospital will be constructed of brick and stone. It will be three stories high, and when finished it will measure 40 x 65 feet. All the latest modern improvements and conveniences will be introduced. The cost of this hospital will not exceed $25,000, including all sub-contracts. Fuller details will be noted later.

Architect Addison Hutton, Fourth and Chestnut streets, has finished plans and final drawings, and is now taking bids on an alteration and an addition to a store building situated at 306 Market street, for William Q. Hansell & Co. This store building will be five stories high, with a basement, and will be built of brick, with galvanized cornice and a tin roof. A general remodeling on the present building will take place.

The Board of Education of Baltimore, Md., will take estimates on a $46,000 school building that is to be built in Baltimore. This educational institution will be built of brick and iron, with a slate roof. It will be three stories high, and will measure 68 x 240 feet. The latest improvements in heating, ventilating, lighting and plumbing are to be introduced. Architect Henry Brauns, of Baltimore, prepared the plans, specifications, etc., and will have complete control. Mr. Brauns will superintend the erection of the building.

Architect E. Allen Wilson is preparing plans for eighty-two two-story brick houses, to be erected by W. T. B. Roberts, operator and builder, Bourse Building, in the lower part of the First ward. Twenty-six of the houses, containing six rooms and bath, with porch fronts, and measuring 15 feet 4 inches x 65 feet, will be put up on the north side of Ritner street, above Fourth, and fifty-six four-room dwellings, with bath, 14 x 50 feet, on Fitzgerald street, above Fourth. They will have ornamental fronts, with brownstone and Wyoming Valley bluestone trimmings, and be finished in good style.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

E. M. Culbertson & Co., 2324-26 Philadelphia street, have been awarded the contract for entire stair work on twelve dwellings at Twenty-second street and Indiana avenue, for Mr. Charles J. Hoekler.

James Arthur, builder, will at once begin the erection of eighty-one two-story houses on Fifty-seventh, Commerce, Filbert and Market streets. All to be of fancy and plain brick, stone trimmings and best modern comforts in interior.

David Kanersky, owner, is about to build a three-story brick dwelling, 16 x 45 feet, at the southwest corner of Second and Godfrey streets; two three-story dwellings, lots 15.3 x 45 feet, and a two-story dwelling, 15 x 40 feet, on Godfrey street, above Second.

Roydhouse, Arey & Co., Master Builders' Exchange, have signed contracts to erect their shops at Burnham, Pa., for the Standard Steel Works at that place. These structures will be of brick, stone and iron work, one-story high, fitted with steam, forges and all general machinery.

Contractor Philip Haibach has taken out a permit to build a two-story brick stable and wagon house, 100 x 85 feet, for Charles and William Freihofer, owners, on the south side of Master street, extending through to Ingersoll street, below Twenty-fourth. It will cost about $19,000.

Contracts will now be made by the Secretary of the Treasury for construction work upon the new U. S. Mint in this city, under authority of Congress, to the extent of $688,859.92, this being a balance available for that purpose from an original appropriation made in 1894. Of course this is dependent upon the action of Congress being ratified by the President.

Frederick M. Pile, owner, has just completed six handsome Pompeian front dwellings, with porches, at the southwest corner of Thirty-eighth street and Powelton avenue. They each contain fourteen rooms, including two bath rooms and pantry, are of new design and elegantly finished in hard woods, and have all the latest improvements and conveniences.

The contracts for plumbing, gas fitting and steam heating for the Perry Building, to be erected at the southeast corner of Sixteenth and Chestnut streets, have been awarded to John J. Nesbitt & Co., 705 Master street. The same firm have also been awarded the plumbing contract for stable in connection with Smith's Ale Brewery, Thirty-eighth street and Girard avenue.

Messrs. Widener & Elkins have just taken title to 1408 Chestnut street, which will adjoint their property on the west, and give an additional 20 feet front on Chestnut street and 89 feet in depth. Of course this will now be incorporated in the drawings for the sixteen-story office structure which they contemplate erecting during the current year, and which has been fully noted in this journal.

Hiram G. Hallinger, the well-known and extensive builder, of Camden, has closed the contract for the purchase of three blocks of land opposite the City Hall, Camden, and facing the parade ground of the new armory. He breaks ground at once for the erection of sixty-four houses ranging in prices from $3500 to $7000 each, which are to be completed this season.

Estimates are being made by builders for the erection of a two-story and basement building, for school purposes, adjoining the Cambria Public School, Thirty-seventh Section. The old buildings at Richfield and Fremont streets are to be torn down to form a site for the new structure, which is to be built of Conshohocken stone, with rough-dressed granite base, and have steel ceilings and all the modern improvements.

E. A. Waddy & Co., 1108 Betz Building, have been awarded, by Architect George T. Pearson, the contract for furnishing all the mill work, organ front, pews, wainscot and stair work for the new chapel wing and library wing extensions to Elizabeth Hall, Stetson University, De Land, Fla. The above firm also have the contract for furnishing the mill work for a bath-room extension to house at northeast corner Forty-second and Spruce streets, for Mr. Atwood Smith.

Negotiations are now pending for the construction of an apartment house on the angle formed by the union of Parkside and Girard avenues and facing the Fortieth street entrance to the Park. On this site there stood for many years the transfer waiting station of the People's Passenger Railway Company, which was recently removed. The ground was purchased by real estate agents, and an effort is being made for the formation of a company which shall erect and manage the building. The structure, as planned, will have a frontage of 90 feet on Parkside avenue, 75 feet on Girard avenue and 29 feet on Fortieth street. It is to be seven stories in height, with a roof garden.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia City Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church was held on the 27th inst. at Wesley Hall, 1018 Arch street. The report of the treasurer showed a balance on hand on February 18th of $575. A resolution was Several important ordinances were favorably recommended to Councils by the Survey Committee on the 24th ult., and were presented by Chairman Hults at the meeting on Thursday last. The sub-committee report, dividing the $300,000 appropriated for sewers in the $5,000,000 loan bill, was accepted, and the ordinance authorizing the construction of Gray's Ferry bridge was favorably recommended. Under the ordinance granting the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad the privilege of extending its tracks across Broad street, the railroad is bound to bear the expense of raising Broad street to be away with the grade crossing. The ordinance to proceed with the elevation of Broad street was favorably recommended. An ordinance to open Butler street from American to Lawrence street will also be favorably reported, notwithstanding that the damages and the cost of a bridge to be constructed will amount to about $10,000.

"A word to the wise is sufficient,"
Is a maxim we've frequently heard;
And now what we want is a maxim
To tell us just what is that word.
—Philadelphia Record.

Well, the word is only a short one,
And its meaning is far from obscure;
It enjoins all dutiful fathers,
While they still have good health, to
INSURE.

"Quaker City" Hopper

Hospitals, School Houses, Railroad Stations and Public institutions should be furnished with water closets
that have a large area of water, can be readily cleaned
out in case the bowl becomes filled with foreign matter
and can be thoroughly flushed out.

The "Quaker City" Hopper possesses these advantages. It is an all-earthenware closet, with the trap and bowl in one piece, holding a considerable body of water, and with a seat of greater depth than is found in an ordinary closet. There is a full-sized waterway from the bowl to the soil-pipe, so that a stoppage in the trap is impossible. The illustration shows the closet connected with a soil-pipe fitting in the wall, but connection can be made with soil pipe in the floor when desired.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAR. 10, 1897.

The members of the Brick Manufacturers Exchange held a meeting on the 1st inst. at the Master Builders' Exchange. Twenty firms were represented, and the scale of prices agreed upon is as follows: Salmon brick, $5.50 to $6.00; hard, $7.00 to $8.00; stretchers, $9.00 to $13.00; pressed, $17.00 to $19.00; pressed stretchers, $12.00. These prices are for the average haul.

The production last year amounted to 400,000,000, a falling off from 1895 of about 40,000,000.

There seems to be no reason for this decrease in the face of the splendid showing of new buildings, 7115, erected last year, unless it is due to less sewer construction than in 1895. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, James E. Dungee; vice-president, Thomas H. Flood; treasurer, A. D. Keyser; secretary, Edward T. Flood. This board of directors, representing the different sections of the city, was elected: Northern, Frederick Seitzer, Robert Paschall and D. Charles Murtha; southern, Murrell Dobbins, Edward Welsh, William H. Clothier and Thomas McAvoy; western, William Conway, James Lloyd and Charles Kimble.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

520 Walnut Street.

William H. Doyle, 1610 Spruce street, has been awarded the general contract for plumbing, drainage and piping for the United States Post-Office Building, situated at Washington, D. C. Mr. Doyle's successful bid was $50,000.

These contractors, Doyle & Doak, Wm. R. Dougherty, Thos. M. Seeds, Jr., are now estimating on a brick residence to be built near Holmesburg, Pa., for Mr. A. B. Cartledge. The plans were prepared by J. Wm. Shaw, architect, 16 S. Broad street, who will superintend the work.

Architect John Fraser, 413 Walnut street, has completed the general contract for plumbing, drainage and piping for the United States Post-Office Building, situated at Washington, D. C. Mr. Doyle's successful bid was $50,000.

T. Frank Miller, architect, 1221 Arch street, has made plans for a large school house to be erected at Oreland, Montgomery county, Pa. The structure will have four large divisions, and be furnished with steam heat and every modern convenience and comfort. It will be built of stone. Also plans for a fine residence to be erected at Oak Lane. Colonial in style, stone and brick, and furnished with every convenience on interior.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Board of Health will receive bids until March 16th for groceries, starch, canned goods, milk, fowl, oysters, butter, eggs, bread, bedding, beds, furniture, etc.

Daniel Main, builder and owner, will at once begin the erection of forty-two two-story dwellings at Haverford and Redfield streets. Also at Fifty-ninth and Haverford streets. All to have Pompeian brick fronts and porches, and all modern comforts on interior.

William M. Wyatt began yesterday the erection of fourteen two-story brick and stone front dwellings and two two-story brick stores and dwellings, 15.6 and 16 x 50 feet, on Ritner street, between Chadwick and Banoroff streets, in the Thirty-sixth ward, for John C. Gallagher.

Fire destroyed the large power house of the Traction Company at Thirteenth and Mt. Vernon streets on the evening of the 4th inst. At present it is an open question whether they will rebuild upon the site or erect a large addition to their plant at Poplar street and Delaware avenue. The matter of location depends on the report of the company's engineers.

The bids for the schools to be erected at Fifteenth and Norris streets and Seymour and Knox streets, in this city, were opened on the 5th inst. For the former one George W. Stewart was the low contractor, and the latter Charles L. Pierson. The bids were scheduled and will be awarded at an early day. It is intended to erect during the current year another large building for educational purposes, at Thirteenth and Porter streets, in the First ward.

Contractor and Builder William Shelly, of this city, is letting separate contracts on one hundred houses that are to be erected in the vicinity of Sixth and Porter streets. These houses will be built of brick, with galvanized iron cornices and a tin roof. They will be two and three stories high, and will measure 15 x 42 and 16 x 56 feet respectively. All the latest improvements and conveniences will be introduced. Mr. Shelly can be seen on the ground.

Chas. McCaul, contractor, 10 N. Eleventh street, has commenced operations on the northeast corner of Ninth and Market streets, and will build the store, previously noted in this journal, for John Dobson, wool merchant. The taking of sub bids has been going on for some time, and will be concluded in a few days. The structure will be eight stories high and quite ornamental in design, furnished with elevators for passengers and freight, electric work, steam heat, and every modern convenience, etc.

William Shelly, the builder, is receiving estimates for a building operation of one hundred and fifty houses on the block of ground bounded by Fifth, Sixth, Ritner and Porter streets, in the First ward, adjoining Millin square. Two new thirty-foot wide streets, called Reese and Fairhill, will be opened from Ritner to Porter street. On Sixth street there will be fifteen two-story houses; on Ritner street, twenty-one; on Sixth street, twenty-one; on Porter street, fifteen; on Reese and Fairhill streets, eighty. These houses will contain all the latest modern improvements.

A movement is now on foot to ask City Councils to appropriate money for a new reservoir in West Philadelphia. The project is being pushed by Thomas Martindale and a large number of taxpayers residing in that part of the city. The present basin at George's Hill has outlived its capacity, and an additional supply is rendered absolutely necessary because of increase of population and spread of building territory. Professor Haupt, the well-known engineer, will soon lay the matter before Councils, as a special committee has been appointed by President Martindale, with Prof. Haupt as chairman.

At Boonton, Morris Co., a new school building will be erected. Competitive plans and specifications for the same will be received until March 16th, at the City Hall, Boonton, by Lewis Van Dune, chairman of the committee, or C. A. The committee in charge of the work consists of M. L. Bamman, Rev. William I. Gill and W. Architect Notes.

The Governor of Pennsylvania has passed and approved of the resolution giving him power to solicit plans for the new Capitol Buildings that are to be built at Harrisburg from at least a half dozen of the leading architects of the country. Plans that are submitted must be approved by the Board of Public Buildings before the contract will be awarded. The following gentlemen are members of this board: Governor Hastings, State Treasurer Haywood and General Mylin.

Architect Charles L. Harding, of Washington, D. C., has finished plans for a $20,000 apartment house that is to be built in that city for a stock company. This apartment house will be built of brick, stone and iron, five or six stories high, and when completed will measure 30 by 70 feet. The same architect has finished plans for five colonial houses that are to be built in the suburbs of Washington for Lewis P. Wise. These houses will be built of stone and brick, with shingle roofs. They will measure 20 by 60 feet, and will be three stories high. The cost of these houses will not exceed $30,000.

Architect Harry Peale, Harrison Building, has finished plans for a dozen houses that will be erected at Thirty-first and Haverford streets for Mr. C. M. Rush, of this city. These houses will be built of Pompeian brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornice and a tin roof. When finished these houses will have a frontage of 17 feet and a depth of about 65 feet. They will be three stories high. The modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot air heating, electrical work, speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, tile work, plumbing, painting, papering, glazing, etc., will be put in. Mr. Frank Dade, Harrison Building, will take all bids.

Architect Isaac Pursell, 119 South Fourth street, has finished plans and will take bids at an early date on a chapel that will be built at Thirty-second street and Montgomery avenue for the East Park Presbyterian Church. This chapel will be built of stone, with a slate roof. It will be two stories high, with a basement. When finished this chapel will have a frontage measuring 46 feet and a depth of about 80 feet. The following items will be included in this contract: Excavating, masonry and brick work, lumber and carpenter work, plumbing, slate, roofing, steam heating, electrical work, toilet-room fixtures, stained glass, interior decorating, painting, etc.

Architects J. F. Stuckert & Son, 49 North Thirteenth street, are preparing final drawings for a residence that will be built at Langhorn, Pa., for Fred Rump & Son, of that place. This residence will be built of stone and brick, with a tile roof. It will be three stories high, with a basement. When completed it will have a frontage of 35 feet and a depth of about 60 feet. All the modern improvements and conveniences will be introduced, such as hot water heating, electric combination gas fixtures, electric wiring, bells, annunciators, batteries, etc., speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, plumbing, tile and mosaic work, interior decorations, painting, papering and glazing.

Architect F. H. Sauer, of Pittsburg, has finished plans and is taking bids on a church that will be built in Pittsburg. This church will be built of stone, brick and iron, with a slate roof. Obituary.

On Monday, the 8th inst., Mr. Carlton M. Williams, the treasurer and active manager of Morse, Williams & Co., died at San Diego, California, where he had gone in quest of health. Mr. Williams possessed many business friends. He was a most estimable gentleman, straightforward and manly in all his business relations, and an active and energetic worker in the welfare of his concern, even to the detriment of his own health. He was also prominent in charitable and religious circles.

Architect Notes.

Architect Henry Dagitt, 706 Walnut street, has finished plans for alterations to the State Fencibles' Armory, located on Broad street, below Race. Mention will be made when bids are received.

Jacob Herold, architect, 441 Chestnut street, has made plans for a store, lodge and public hall building, and bids are being made on the work in the office of P. O'Meara, contractor, 1228 Filbert street.

T. Frank Miller, architect, 1231 Arch street, has made plans for a four-story manufactory at Tenth and Lombard streets, northwest corner, and will supervise the work of construction. Henry C. Dahl is the contractor. The structure will cost about $8000. Mentioned previously.

Edwin Salter, architect, Wissinoming, has made plans for a new P. E. Church building to be erected at Torresdale by the congregation of that suburb. It will be large enough to seat about 500 persons, and of brick and stone. The matter of building at once is now being considered by the Building Committee.

Architects Cope & Stewardson are making plans for an addition which is to be built to the residence of Thomas McKean, at the northeast corner of Twentieth and Walnut streets. Extensive alterations are to be made to the present structure, and the addition will be built on the east side of it. The property has just been purchased, and in about a month the plans will be made public.

Thomas P. Lonsdale, architect, Manhattan Life Building, this city, has made complete plans for a parish building to be erected at Forty-first and Brown streets for Calvary P. E. congregation. The structure will be practically four stories, stone and brick, slate roof, steam heat and best conveniences. Stained and leaded glass windows and doors, hard wood finish on interior. Estimates are being made by contractors in general.

Plans have been submitted to Structural Engineer Barnes, of the Bureau of Building Inspection, providing for the erection of a four-story stone front dwelling, 25 x 90 feet, for John G. Carruth, at the northwest corner of Broad and Thompson streets. The plans were drawn by Architects Hazelhurst & Huckel. The building which now occupies the site is being torn down preparatory to erecting the new dwelling. Noted previously.

Architect Robert Heed, of Baltimore, Md., is preparing plans for six houses that are to be built for Mr. A. W. Hoopes. These houses will be built of stone and brick, and when completed they will measure 18 x 45 feet. They will be three stories high, and will be built in pairs. Details have not been decided upon yet, but all the modern improvements and conveniences will be introduced. These houses will cost $25,000, including all sub-contracts.

Architect H. D. Dagitt, 706 Walnut street, has finished plans and is now receiving estimates on a light manufacturing building that will be built at 923 Race street for Mr. Bear. This building will be constructed of brick, stone and iron, four stories high, with a tin roof. It will have a floor space of about 1200 square feet. All the latest improvements will be introduced, including heating, lighting, plumbing and sanitary drainage, etc.

Plans for 150 houses are in the office of M. P. Wells & Company, Thirteenth and Walnut streets, that are to be built at Fifth and Ritner streets for John P. Devlin, of this city. These houses will be built of brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornices and tin roofs. They will be two and three stories high, and when completed will have a frontage of 16 feet and a depth of about 40 feet. Sub estimates are now being received. Private plans.

Architect Charles M. Burns, 717 Walnut street, is preparing plans for a church that will be erected in Wilkesbarre, Pa., for the St. Stephen's Episcopal Church congregation of that place. This edifice will be built of stone and brick, with a slate roof. It will be one story high, with a basement. When finished this church will measure 65 x 150 feet. The cost of this church will not exceed $80,000, including steam heating, electrical work, plumbing and drainage, including toilet-room fixtures, such as urinals, basins, closets, tile work, stained glass, etc.

Architect H. A. Stout, Law Building, Atlantic City, is preparing plans for a pair of Colonial residences that are to be built on Vermont avenue, Atlantic City, for Messrs. William Burkhart Bros., of Atlantic City. This pair of dwellings will be built of brick and frame, with shingle roofs. They will be four stories high, and when finished they will have a frontage measuring 29 feet and a depth of about 40 feet. The cost of this pair of dwellings will reach $10,000. All modern improvements and conveniences will be introduced. Mention will be made when contracts are let.

Plans are now being prepared by Horace W. Sellers, architect, 539 Bourse Building, for the alterations to the Bohnen property, at 1510 Walnut street, to fit it for the occupancy of the University Club. This fine old mansion has a front of fifty feet, and the main building is seventy feet deep. The plans call for an extension of the back building, which is about twenty-five feet wide, to the full depth of the lot, 168 feet, and a height of four stories. The first floor will contain reception and lounging rooms and billiard rooms. On the second floor, the dining, smoking and library rooms will be arranged; on the third floor, private dining rooms in the front, and servants' bed-rooms in the rear; on the fourth floor, members' bed-rooms in the front and kitchens in the rear.

"A word to the wise is sufficient,"
Is a maxim we've frequently heard;
And now what we want is a maxim
To tell us just what is that word.

Well, the word is only a short one,
And its meaning is far from obscure;
It enjoins all dutiful fathers,
While they still have good health, to
INSURE.

C. E. Top, of Chicago, has received the contract to erect an electric railway in the city of Mexico for $400,000. J. B. Haggin, of New York, is one of the owners.

At the southwest corner of Tenth and Humboldt streets, Owner and Builder William Welker is putting up five two-story brick dwellings, 16 and 14.9 x 30 feet.

Contractor William Freiling is going to erect a one-story brick mill, 34 x 57 feet, on the west side of Palethorp street, below Indiana avenue, for William Scholes & Son, owners.

Owner and Builder John Loughran will commence work on the erection of a three-story brick and brownstone store at the northwest corner of Tenth street and Indiana avenue, to cost $16,000. The new structure will measure 10 x 89 feet.

The Women's Southern Homeopathic Hospital, 321-23 South Seventh street, is contemplating some alterations or rebuilding of their present quarters. Much, however, depends upon the contributions for that purpose from the charitably disposed.

The receivers for Bosshardt Wilson Company are putting up a shed, 73 x 34 feet, of corrugated iron, on an iron frame, on the wharf south of South street bridge, on the east side of the Schuylkill river, which is to be used for storing lubricating oils.

Robert Beatty & Bro., contractors, have started work on the erection of a four-story and basement carpet factory for C. H. Masland, owner, at the southeast corner of Amber and Westmoreland streets. The new structure, which has already been described in this column, will cost $16,000.

Owner and Builder Joshua M. Holmes is erecting sixteen two-story brick dwellings and three three-story brick dwellings on the west side of Thirty-first street, above Cumberland street, in the Twenty-eighth ward. The three-story houses will each measure 16 x 50 feet, and the other houses will each be 15 x 50 feet.

Killough Bros., owners, are going to build five two-story brick dwellings, each 16 x 50 feet, on the north side of Master street, west of Fifty-third; five two-story brick dwellings on the east side of Peach street, above Master, and six three-story brick dwellings on the west side of Fifty-third street, above Master. All of these houses will be built in pairs.

Sealed proposals will be received by the property committee of the Board of Education, at 713 Filbert street, until March 23d, for the erection of a new school building at the southeast corner of Thirteenth and Porter streets; for dynamo foundations at the Central Manual Training School; for storm doors at Penn school; for iron fire escape at Hoffman school.

The L. A. Thompson Company has been granted permission by the Bureau of Building Inspection to construct a scenic railway at the Fairmount Park Trolley Company's new pleasure resort. This park is back of the Gentlemen's Driving Park, on Ford road, and the pavilion for the railway will be a two-story frame structure, 62 x 105 feet. It will cost about $20,000.

Owner Morris Schneider was granted permission to-day to put up a three-story brick dwelling, 19.6 x 41 feet, at the northwest corner of Fifth and Catharine streets. An affidavit, in which Mr. Schneider says he will not permit more than two families to occupy the house unless alterations are made, is filed away with the application at the office of the Bureau of Building Inspection.

The Committee on Plans and Improvements of the Park Commission held a meeting on the 11th inst. for the purpose of considering several appropriations made by the board for work during the coming season. When the question of using $54,000 for the construction of a roadway and improving contiguous grounds from the Thirty-fourth street entrance to Girard avenue bridge was taken up, Mr. Stokley expressed the opinion that the money should be used along the Wissahickon. It was finally decided to approve the appropriation as made by the board, and the chief engineer was directed to advertise for proposals for the work in accordance with the specifications presented to the committee. The completion of the monkey house in the Zoological Garden, for which $5000 was appropriated, was authorized to be done under specifications which were explained by the superintendent of the gardens. The appropriation of $9000 for continuing the construction of the river wall on the west side and $1000 for rip-rapping on the east side, north of the Powers & Weightman wharf, was approved, and the superintendent was directed to advertise for proposals under the specifications presented. The superintendent was directed also to prepare specifications for widening the East River Drive from the Baltimore and Ohio bridge to the bridge of the trolley company across the Schuylkill river.

Pierson is going to build a three-story sandstone front dwelling, 49 by 34 feet, on the southeast side of Gowen street, northeast of Ardleigh avenue, in the Twenty second ward, for Joseph A. This house will be built of stone and brick, with a tile roof, and will have all the modern improvements and conveniences introduced. The cost of this residence, including sub-contracts, will not exceed $20,000.

Architect E. T. Hetherington, 923 Locust street, has finished plans and is now taking estimates on eight houses that will be built at Edge Hill, Pa. These houses will be built of stone and frame, with shingle roofs. When finished they will have a frontage of 22 feet and a depth of about 50 feet. These houses will be two and a half stories high, with basements. The following items will be included in the general contract: Hot air heating, electric combination gas fixtures, wiring, bells, etc., mantels, open fireplaces, plumbing and drainage, painting, papering and glazing.

Architect George Haskell, of Baltimore, Md., has finished plans and wants estimates on an engine house that will be built in the vicinity of Baltimore, for that city. This engine-house will be built of stone, brick and iron, with a composition roof. It will be built two stories high, with a basement. Terra cotta trimmings will be extensively used on the front. A hose tower will be erected, and when this engine-house is completed it will measure 30 x 70 feet. Steam heating, electric-lighting, plumbing, painting, tile and interior work will be included in the contract. The cost will not exceed $30,000.

George F. Payne & Bro., contractors and builders, 401 South Juniper street, have plans for a $3000 stable that will be erected at Forty-fourth and Spruce streets, prepared by Architect Crawford Coates, 1107 Walnut street, for Walter H. Walter, of Forty-fourth and Spruce streets. This stable will be built of stone, with a slate roof. It will be two stories high, and when finished will measure 22 by 24 feet. The following items will be included in the general contract: Excavating, masonry and stone work, slate roofing, cement work, lumber and carpenter work, plumbing and drainage, patent combination single and box stalls, feed boxes, etc., painting, glazing, iron window guards and hardware. Mention will be made when the general contract is awarded.

Architects MacCollin & East, Mutual Life Building, have finished plans, and are now receiving bids on an alteration to and remodeling of St. Patrick's Church, located at Twentieth and Locust streets. This alteration and remodeling will include interior alterations, changing position of partitions, location of windows, etc. When work is completed this church will undergo a complete improvement in artistic painting, stencil work and interior decoration.

William Steele & Son, 506 Walnut street, has plans in his office and is figuring on a residence that is to be built at Tabor Station for George W. Hutt, of this city, from plans and specifications prepared by Architect Thomas Jamison, 2219 Chestnut street. This residence will be built of stone and frame, with a shingle roof. It will have a frontage measuring 34 feet and a depth of about 65 feet. This residence will be two and a half stories high. All the latest improvements and conveniences, such as hot air and water combination heating, electrical work, gas fixtures, speaking tubes, tile work, open fireplaces, mantels, wardrobes, plumbing, painting, interior decorations, etc. The cost of this residence, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $6000.

Architects Hewitt Bros., Bullitt Building, have awarded the general contract for a home for old men that is to be built at Thirty-ninth and Baring streets, to Contractors Thomas Little & Sons, 223 Pear street, this city. This addition will be of brick and terra cotta, with a tin roof. It will be built four stories high, with a basement. When this addition is completed it will measure 75 by 95 feet. All the modern improvements are included in this contract, including heating, lighting, wiring, bells, tile and mosaic work, plumbing, painting, glazing, etc. This addition will be built for the Old Men's Home, now located at Thirty-ninth and Baring streets. The cost of this addition, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $51,000. Formerly mentioned.

Architect George C. Mason, Drexel Building, has received bids on a residence that is to be erected at Andalusia, Pa., for the estate of Charles L. Brodie, and has awarded the general contract to A. S. Pomison, 6805 Germantown avenue, this city. This residence will be built of frame, with a shingle roof. It will be three stories high, with a basement. When completed it will have a frontage of 20 feet and a depth measuring about 50 feet. The following items are included in this contract: Hot air heating, electrical work, gas fixtures, plumbing, painting, papering, open fire places, etc., together with excavations, masonry work, carpenter, lumber and mill work. Separate contractor's bids are now being taken and separate contracts will be awarded. The cost of this dwelling, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $4000.

Architect George I. Lovatt, 424 Walnut street, has finished plans for a hotel that is to be erected at Rum Point, Atlantic City, N. J. This hotel will be built of brick and frame, with a shingle roof, and will be three stories high, with a basement. When completed, it will measure about 60 x 110 feet. The first story will contain reception halls, dining rooms, parlors, cafes, etc.; the second and third stories will contain sleeping apartments. The cost of this hotel will not exceed $10,000, including all the following contracts, such as steam heating, electric combination lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, etc., speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, tile and mosaic work, plumbing, toilet and bath room fixtures, including urinals, closets, bathtubs, basins, etc., painting, glazing and interior work. Bids will be taken in a few days. Mention will be made when contract is awarded.

The Bootby Hotel Company, Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, contemplate making extensive alterations and additions to their present hotel at the above address. These alterations will include a new front of modern style, and the addition will include the present back buildings being enlarged. The front will be built of stone and brick, with large plate glass bulks. The rear buildings will be built of brick, probably two stories high, with a tin roof. After this alteration and addition is completed this hotel will have the latest improvements introduced; present heating system will be improved; electric lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, speaking tubes, tile and mosaic work, grille work, plumbing, toilet-room fixtures of the latest type, including urinals, closets, basins, etc.; artistic painting, papering and interior decorating. PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAR. 24, 1897.

The Paint for 1897.

The finger of science points to Graphite paint as the paint of the future for the protection of all exposed iron and metal work. Prof. Spennrath, Director of the Technical School of Aix-la-Chapelle, lately won the $2000 prize offered by the Society for the Advancement of the Industrial Arts for the best essay on Protective Paints. The prize was not won simply by theoretical demonstrations, although the professor furnished scientific reasons also, but by most carefully conducted practical experiments with various pigments and oils, covering several years' time. The results demonstrated that a properly made paint of graphite and boiled linseed oil is the most suitable for protecting structural iron work, roofs, etc., exposed to the destructive agencies of heat, cold, storms, etc.

Running parallel with these results are the facts demonstrated by those who have used Dixon's Silica Graphite Paint during the past 30 years. Roofs and iron work properly painted with Dixon's paint have not required repainting in 15 to 20 years. As the season for painting is now close at hand it may pay those interested to write to the Joseph Dixon Crucible Co., Jersey City, N. J., for circulars.

Davis' Directory is Out.

Davis' new Directory of Architects and Builders of Pennsylvania for 1897 is out. The book is invaluable as a directory, besides which it contains the Building Laws and a mass of valuable data which is good to have at one's finger ends at all times. It is sold at $2.00 per volume, and the office is at 708 Chestnut street.

Architect Notes.

Collins & Autenreth, architects, 410 Walnut street, are at work on plans for a six-story office building, to be erected for the Lea estate on the site of the late fire at Thirteenth and Market streets. It is expected the drawings will be placed for estimate at an early date.

The supervising architect has opened the steam heating bids for the Post-office building in Washington, D. C., and the lowest was submitted by the Philadelphia Steam Heating Company, 1513 Filbert street. The price submitted was inside of $125,000 for heating and ventilating said building.

Architects Davis Bros., of Catonsville, Md., have finished plans for a $6000 residence that is to be erected at that place for Mr. William Asker. This residence will be constructed of stone and frame, with a shingle roof, two and a half stories high, and when finished it will measure 30 x 40 feet. All the latest modern conveniences and improvements in heating, lighting, plumbing, interior work, etc., will be introduced.

Architect Thomas Bennett, 923 Locust street, is preparing plans for an alteration to a residence situated at Colmar, Pa., for C. H. S. Duffield, of this city. When alterations are completed it will be four stories high, with basement, and will measure 40 x 60 feet. It will be built of stone, with a shingle roof, and will undergo an entire remodelling. Details will be given later, and mention will be made when plans are finished.

Plans have been submitted to Structural Engineer Barnes, of the Bureau of Building Inspection, for the erection of a four-story brick building, 89.34 by 22.4 feet, with an L extension, and a boiler-house at the Old Man's Home, at the southeast corner of Thirtieth and Baring streets. The plans were prepared by Architects G. W. & W. D. Hewitt, and Contractors Thomas Little & Son will do the work. The operation will cost $50,000.

Architect Samuel Milligan, 520 Walnut street, has finished plans for seventy-five houses that are to be built at Fifty-ninth and Haverford streets, for Mr. Joseph Stertler, 4906 Baltimore avenue. These houses will be built of brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornice and a tin roof. They will measure 16 x 50 feet. All the modern improvements and conveniences will be included in this contract. Mr. Joseph Stertler will let separate contracts.

Architect Palmer, of Washington, D. C., is preparing plans for a Methodist Home that is to be built in Washington, D. C. This Home will be built of stone and brick and terra cotta. When finished it will measure 48 x 90 feet. It will be three stories high, with a basement. The following items will be included in the general contract: Steam heating, electric lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, tile and mosaic work, plumbing, toilet and bath-room fixtures, painting and interior work. The entire cost of this Home, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $80,000.

Architect E. C. Tritton, 410 Walnut street, has finished plans for three pairs of twin dwellings that are to be built in Germantown, Pa., for Messrs. Seymour and Savage. These houses will be built of stone and pebble dash, with tile roofs. They will have a frontage of 17 feet, and when completed they will be three stories high, with a basement. The following items will be introduced: Hot-water heating, electrical work, gas fixtures, bronze hardware, tile and mosaic work, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, plumbing, painting, papering, glazing, etc. The cost of this operation will not exceed $30,000. Mention will be made when estimates are taken.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Harrison C. Rea, 1815 Francis street, has been awarded the contract for extensive alterations to the building at Tenth and Medical streets, to fit it for occupancy by the Jefferson Hospital.

Charles L. Peirson, contractor, northwest corner Thirteenth and Walnut streets, will erect the new school house at Knox and Seymour streets, and Geo. W. Stewart, the one to be built at Norris and Fifteenth streets. Both have been noted previously in this journal in full. Mr. Peirson's bid for the former structure was $64,999, and that of Contractor Stewart for the latter $59,300.

James J. Brennan, 1624 South Eighteenth street, has been awarded the contract to erect seventeen dwellings on Front and Mifflin streets for Mr. Robert Martmann, coal merchant. These dwellings will be of brown stone and Pompeian brick, latest designs of cabinet and tile work, electric work and all modern improvements. Plans by Howard Hager, 1220 Filbert street. Work will begin at once.

Some action towards the restoration of the Northwest School, on Race street, below Fifteenth, which was partially destroyed by fire recently, will be taken by the Board of Education's Property Committee. It is probable that Councils will be asked for an appropriation to put up an entirely new 15-division building, as that portion of the old structure which was saved from the flames is very dilapidated. The estimated cost of a new school house there is $40,000.

The congregation and trustees of the First Baptist Church, Paul and Unity streets, Frankford, of which Rev. G. J. Burchett is the pastor, have decided to tear down their present building and to erect a much larger and more costly one. The old church, which was erected 45 years ago, was considered at the time a very handsome one. The new church is to be of dressed Holmesburg granite in the Gothic style of architecture and will have double the seating capacity of the present building. Samuel Bolton is chairman of the building committee.

"A word to the wise is sufficient,"
Is a maxim we've frequently heard;
And now what we want is a maxim
To tell us just what is that word.

—Philadelphia Record.

Well, the word is only a short one,
And its meaning is far from obscure;
It joins all dutiful fathers,
While they still have good health, to
INSURE.

Plans have been prepared for an additional story and other alterations at the Nineteenth district police station, on Lombard street, east of Eighth, and they are now open to inspection at the office of the Chief of the Bureau of City Property. Bids for the work will be opened by Director Rittner in a short time.

Allen B. Rorke has been awarded the work upon the Public Buildings for the current year. Charles Seger, of the 7th ward, has been elected as a member of the Commission, vice Isaac V. Cassin, deceased.

Geo. F. Payne & Co., contractors, 401 South Juniper street, will in a few days begin the erection of the new Museum of Biology and Paleontology at the University of Pennsylvania. JOHN F. BRISBANE, City Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAR. 31, 1897.

The City Trust Company's Opening.

On the 20th instant the officers and directors of the City Trust gave a reception to the many friends of that institution, the occasion being the opening of its new office building, 927 and 929 Chestnut street. About 300 visitors expressed their admiration and delight over the internal arrangements of the building for business purposes.

The occasion also afforded an opportunity for the company to extend to its visitors a generous and hospitable welcome in the way of a lunch.

The success of the City Trust is the result of careful and conservative management, and its additional business facilities will surely invite even a greater degree of prosperity.

F. Weber & Co.'s Standard Specifications.

Architects, builders and contractors can save themselves an enormous amount of extra work by the use of the Standard Blank Form Specifications, for which the well-known architects' and draughtsmen's supply house of F. Weber & Co., 1125 Chestnut street, is the agent. These specifications provide for the preamble, the mason, plasterer, carpenter, painter, plumber, iron; as well also for the contractor's statement, contract between architect and owner, and the agreement between architect, owner and contractor, with bond, ample space being allowed for each of the many divisions of work and responsibility. They are sold single at 25 cents a set, or $2.50 per dozen $17.50 per hundred. Postage, 5 cents per set, or 25 cents expressage to any part of the United States or Canada.

The Equitable Trust Company.

The Equitable Trust Company has leased the entire first floor of offices in the Betz

Building, Broad street, above Chestnut. The offices on the north side of the main entrance to the building are at present partially occupied by the Contractors' Surety, Title, and Trust Company, but the lease of that company will expire early next year, after which The Equitable Trust Company will have the sole and exclusive possession of the entire first floor of the building.

The banking offices on the south side of the main entrance will be occupied by the financial department, while the offices on the north side will be used for the title, trust, and suretyship business of the company. Safe deposit boxes, with the latest and most improved devices for security and convenience, will be provided. It is expected that the new offices will be ready for occupancy not later than July 1, 1897.

President W. F. Harry and those associated with him in the direction and management of the company are of the opinion that better results will be obtained for the stockholders, depositors, etc., by leasing suitable offices in a desirable location than by investing a large amount of capital, say $50,000 or $750,000, in an office building. They are of the opinion that much of the success of The Equitable Trust Company is due to the fact that the company has had the advantage of the continuous use of this large sum of money in the transaction of its business in making loans upon mortgages and approved collateral securities, rather than to have had it invested in a single piece of real estate.

Architect Notes.

O. W. Shelly & Co., 611 Franklin Building, have made plans for a cottage to be erected at Jenkintown, Pa. The structure will be two and a half stories high, and of frame, with all modern conveniences on interior. Estimates are being offered for the work.

Architects Cope & Stewardson, 320 Walnut street, are making plans for a $10,000 hospital that will be built at Overbrook, Pa., for the Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind of this city. This hospital will be built of stone and brick, three stories high. Details will be given when plans are finished and bids are taken.

Architect Richard Wittingham, of Swarthmore, Pa., has finished plans and will take bids on a $35,000 club-house that is to be built in the vicinity of Baltimore, Md. This club-house will be built of stone and brick, with terra cotta trimmings and a tile roof, and will be three stories high and measure 40 x 60 feet. Mention will be made later when contract is awarded.

Architect Harry Peale, Harrison Building, has finished plans for twelve dwellings that are to be built at Thirty-first and Haverford streets for Charles W. Busche, of this city. These houses will have Pompeian brick fronts, with local stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornices and tin roofs, and will have a frontage measuring about 16 feet and a depth of 50 feet. They will be built three stories high, with basement. The following items will be included in this operation: Hot air heating, electric work, including combination lighting, wiring, bells, annunciators, batteries, etc.; speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, tile work, plumbing, painting, papering, glazing, etc. Frank Dade, Harrison Building, is taking sub-contractors' bids, and will let separate contracts. The cost of this operation will amount to about $65,000. Mention was made when plans were being prepared.

Architect William L. Price, 731 Walnut street, has finished plans and awarded J. S. Rodgers, of Stanwick, N. J., the contract for the erection of a hotel at Asbury Park for Miss M. S. Lightfoot, of Philadelphia. This hotel will be built of brick and frame, with a shingle roof. It will be three stories high, with a basement, and will measure 30 x 70 feet. The first story will contain the reception halls, parlors, dining and cafe rooms; the second and third stories will contain about 80 sleeping apartments. The kitchen, laundry, etc., will be located in the basement. The following items are included in the general contract: Steam heating, electric lighting, wiring, call bells, annunciators, etc., tile and mosaic work, open fire places, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, etc., plumbing, bath, and toilet room fixtures, painting, plumbing, interior decorations and glazing. The cost of this hotel, including all the above improvements, will not exceed $15,000.

George H. Backmire, 1345 Somerset street, is letting separate contracts on a store and residence that is to be built at Broad and Somerset streets from plans prepared by Architect E. Allen Wilson, 401 Bourse Building. This store and dwelling will be built of brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornice, and a tin roof. It will have a frontage of 20 feet and a depth of 70 feet. All the modern improvements and conveniences will be introduced. Formerly mentioned. The same architect is preparing plans for four houses that are to be built in the vicinity of Penn and Cumberland streets. These houses will have Pompeian brick fronts, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornices and tin roofs. They will have a frontage measuring 17 feet and a depth of about 60 feet. These houses will be three stories high, with a basement. When these dwellings are completed the following latest modern improvements and conveniences will be introduced: Hot air heating, electric combination gas fixtures, wiring, etc., speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, tile work, plumbing, bathroom fixtures, etc. The cost of these houses, including all sub-contracts, will not exceed $5500 each.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The stockholders of the Pancoast Ventilator Company, Bourse Building, authorize an increase in the capital stock from $50,000 to $100,000. The company reports a large increase in orders for its ventilators for both passenger cars and building.

Messrs William Pierce and Nathan Worrell, of this city, will erect three or four copper green houses in the vicinity of Kennett Square, Pa. Bids will be taken in about two weeks. The specifications will require lumber and carpenter work, copper work, etc., painting, glazing, piping, etc.

James J. Brennan has been awarded the contract to tear down six old houses and build seventeen two-story seven-room brick dwellings, at Front and Millin streets, for Robert Markmann, coal dealer. They will have all the latest improvements. Work is to commence at once.

Charles L. Pierson, contractor, northeast corner Thirteenth and Walnut streets, has on hand contracts for buildings as follows: A brick office for Dr. Gleason at Nineteenth and Chestnut streets, a new school at Richfield and Tremont streets. Also, another larger one at Knox and Seymour streets, Germantown. All the above have been previously noted in this Journal.

Messrs. Robert and Alexander Wilson, 940 Gray's Ferry road, are letting separate contracts on fifteen houses that are to be built at Fifth street and Woodland avenue. These houses will be built of brick, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornices and a tin roof. They will be three stories high, hot air heating, electric combination, gas fixtures, wiring, bells, annunciators, speaking tubes, mantels, plumbing, painting, papering and glazing. They will measure 16 x 48 feet. The proposed cost of this operation will not exceed $43,000.

Stevenson Brothers, Thirty-second and Cumberland streets, will erect and let separate contracts on forty dwellings at Thirty-second and a-half and Diamond streets. These houses will have Pompeian brick fronts, with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornices and a tin roof. They will be two stories high, with a basement. When completed each will have a frontage measuring 14 feet and a depth of about 50 feet. All the modern improvements and conveniences, such as hot air heating, electrical work, speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, plumbing, tile work, painting, papering, interior decorations, etc., will be introduced. When finished these houses will be for sale or for rent.

Builder Ashton S. Tourison, 6905 Germantown avenue, Philadelphia, has been awarded the general contract for a $4500 residence that will be erected at the corner of Carpenter and Wayne avenue, Germantown, for Mr. John Pyle, of Germantown, Philadelphia. This house will be built of brick, three stories high, with a frontage of about 26 feet, and a depth that will measure about 50 feet. All the following items will be introduced: Combination hot air and water heating, electrical work, plumbing, tile work, interior work, painting, papering, glazing, etc. Private plans.

The latest thing in the electric lighting line is the Upton Midget Enclosed Arc Lamp, the full length of this lamp, including globe, being 20 inches. It is devised for use on incandescent circuits, and consumes but 4½ amperes, which is the quantity required for eight sixteen-candle power incandescent lamps. At the expense of this small outlay the Arc lamp gives 800-candle power in a steady, rich, white light. The Enclosed Incandescent Arc lamp is the latest idea for indoor lighting in large spaces. The Etherington Company, Fidelity Building, are the sole agents for this territory.

Mr. Thomas W. Wright, 23 Harvey street, Germantown, has been awarded the general contract for a colonial residence that will be built on Green street, for Mr. Louis W. Deitz. This residence will be built of stone, three stories high. It will have a frontage of about 32 feet and a depth of 56 feet. The first and second stories will be finished in chestnut, and the third story will have white pine finish. All the latest improvements and conveniences will be introduced, including hot air and hot water heating, electric combination gas fixtures, speaking tubes, call bells, mantels, wardrobes, tile and mosaic work, plumbing, interior decorating, painting, papering, etc. The cost of this residence will not exceed $10,000.

A big enterprise now in course of preparation is the building of an eight-story grain elevator, 75 x 215 feet, on the west side of Twenty-third street, north of Race street. At that location the Tradesmen's Grain Elevator and Storage Company has now a four-story

Patented Sept. 11, 1894.

It is recognized by experts, conversant with sanitary matters, that every fixture must be as near "all open" as it is possible to make it. With the "Albo" detachable seat we not only do away with the unnecessary and dirt-absorbing woodwork at back of closet going against wall, but also present a seat in every way a perfect sanitary success.

The "Albo" seat allows of an "all open" space at back between closet and wall, thus giving free access around the bowl at all times. Another great advantage which the "Albo" seat possesses is that it can be entirely detached from the earthenware by simply lifting it up, so that all surfaces of the seat and bowl can be kept perfectly sweet and clean.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, APRIL 7, 1897.

Thirty one years of uninterrupted triumph and success, and the Evening Star, of this city, entered upon its thirty-second birthday on Friday last.

As the stars overhead have for ages twinkled with undiminished splendor to the great joy and comfort of mankind, may our own Evening Star under the fostering care of its founders still continue to shed its wholesome light in its own peculiar cleanly way at the homes and fire-places of the best city to live and work in there is on God's big earth.

There is not a particle of luck in the Star's prolonged success, it is the natural outcome of brains and honest work.

Architect Notes.

Hales & Ballinger, architects, southwest corner Twelfth and Chestnut streets, have awarded the contract for the addition to Estersbrook Penn factory in Camden, N. J., to John M. Anderson, 1321 South Eighteenth street, and work will be started at once. The structure will be four stories, 25 x 70 feet, and of same material as the present plant. The same architects are busily engaged on other plans, which will be noted at an early day.

Architect John Fraser, 413 Walnut street, is preparing plans for a boiler-house that will be built at Old Point Comfort, Va., in connection with the Hotel Chamberlain, of that place. The boiler-house will be built of brick, two stories high, with a basement. When completed the boiler-house will measure 30 x 45 feet. The following items will be included in the general contract: Excavating, masonry and brick work, concrete and cement work, roofing, painting, glazing, iron work, etc. The cost of this boiler-house will not exceed $30 0, including all sub-contracts.

Calvin Wells, the proprietor of the Press, has purchased from Samuel R. Shipley the property at No. 707 Sansom street, measuring 21.6 x 91 feet, for $21,000. It is now occupied by an electric light company. This is the fourth property on Sansom street which Mr. Wells has purchased. Plans have been recently prepared by Architect Theophilus P. Chandler for an eight-story office building, on which bids were taken, to occupy the sites of Nos. 701-3 5 Sansom street. It is now likely that the plans will be altered so as to include No 707 Sansom street.

Architect William Price, 731 Walnut street, is making preliminary sketches for an office building that is to be built in Baltimore or Washington, D. C. This office building will be built of stone, brick, iron and terra cotta, with a composition roof. It will be six stories high, with a basement and sub-cellar. The elevators will be situated in both ends of this building; toilet-rooms will be on each floor, and the heating, ventilating and lighting plants will be located in the basement. All the latest improvements will be introduced, such as electric lighting, tile and mosaic work, painting, steam heating, plumbing, toilet-room fixtures, including urinals, basins, etc. Same architect is preparing plans for a colonial residence that will be built at Wenonah, N. J., for Mr. Edward K. Parrar, of that place. This residence will be built of stone and frame, three stories high, with a shingle roof. This residence will have a frontage measuring 30 feet and a depth of about 70 feet. The outlay of the residence will not exceed $12,000, including combination hot air and hot water heating, electrical work, including lighting with incandescent lamps, wiring, etc. All modern comforts introduced.

A very handsome Episcopal Church is to be erected at Forty-second street and Kingsessing avenue. The plans are by Architect J. Cather Newsom, 1001 Chestnut street. The general dimensions will be 100 x 80 feet and the exterior walls are to be of broken range dark blue marble, pointed in cream mortar. The roof and main tower are to be covered with red slate. The loggias will be wainscoted up the sides eight feet high with East Tennessee pink marble, with darker shade cap and vase. The same finish will be given to the main auditorium and transepts, also to the baptistry, chapel chancel and sanctuary. The walls above the wainscoting will be faced with enameled bricks in deep terra cotta color. The finish throughout will be of oak, in old English or dark greenish hue. The ceilings will be domed and the side walls will have neat half circle arches, the whole making a very handsome interior. There will be a large central dome 34 feet in diameter, which will run well up into the main tower. This will have suitable art glass windows and scriptural subjects frescoed on the walls. The entire floors will be of Mosaic tiling in neat design. The baptistry will be of marble, with carved base. There will be organ chambers, auxiliary choir rooms and other necessary rooms. The cost of the entire building will not exceed $80,000 and it will have accommodations for 2,000 persons. There will be an arcade between the main building and the Sunday School department. The Sunday School room, seating 1,000, will be situated immediately adjoining the main auditorium and will measure 60 x 80 feet. In the basement will be placed the gymnasium and dressing rooms, kitchen and furnace rooms and toilet rooms. On the main floor the Sunday School room, library and infant's department. In the second story will be the Guild rooms and general room for receptions and entertainments.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

A. S. Tourison, contractor, will build the parish house for the Calvary P. E. Church, Forty-first and Brown streets, previously noted. Thos. P. Lonsdale, architect, drew the plans, and these have been fully noted in a previous issue of this journal.

E. M. Culbertson & Co., 2324-26 Philadelphia street, have been awarded contract for all stair work on twenty two and three-story dwellings for Mr. Joshua M. Holmes, at Thirty-first and Cumberland streets. Also new stairs for dwelling of Mr. G. T. Murphins, 939 North Eleventh street, and Wheel Pump Hotel, Chestnut Hill, Robert Gordon, proprietor.

James Johnson, contractor, will erect a six-story office and store building at 1809-17 Market street, for the Henry C. Gibson estate, G. W. & W. D. Hewitt, architects. Fire-proof brick, stone and iron; mentioned previously.

W. T. B. Roberts will build eighty-two dwellings, two-story, on Fitzgerald street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, and N s Ritter, between Fourth and Fifth streets.

Henry G. Freeman is again to the front with a prospect of erecting a large office building at the southeast corner of Broad and Chestnut streets; the matter is in the hands of the Supreme Court for final settlement as to terms of lease of ground for fifty years. A full description of the proposed structure has been given in these columns, and when definite action is taken will appear again in detail. Active measures are being taken to clear the site of the tenants now in possession.

James Mann & Co., Thirtieth and Locust streets, have been awarded the contract for furnishing the brownstone for residence for Mr. John G. Carruth, at northwest corner of Broad and Thompson streets. The plans show a very handsome front. Hazelhurst & Huettel, architects. Also contract for bakery building for the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, at Eighteenth and Cherry streets. They are just completing the garden house and garden walls at the residence of Mr. Jno. W. Pepper, Jenkintown,

The Sale of the Century

Times were very hard last Fall, just before the election of President McKinley. Manufacturers were glad to accept orders at cost rather than close down their mills.

Firm in the belief that the tide must soon
turn, we ordered double quantities of piece goods
from leading American mills at lowest prices ever quoted on American woollens.

IN THIS, WE WERE ALONE

We are, therefore, enabled to inaugurate the GREATEST CLOTHING SALE of the CENTURY, which couples Worthiest Garments with the Saving of Contracts Waiving Lien Law.

Caleb B. Reynolds, owner, and The R. & P. Vansant Lumber Company, contractors. The latter agree to supply lumber for the construction of ten houses at Thirty-second and Race streets, for $1,329; made March 9, 1897.

The University of Pennsylvania, owner, and James J. Ryan, contractor. The latter agrees to make excavations for the Museum of Science, at Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets; made March 31, 1897.

Caroline L. Zehr, owner, and George Zehr, contractor. The latter agrees to erect two dwellings, west side "D," south Clearfield street, for $2400; made March 31, 1897.

NOTE.—In our last issue, under contracts waiving lien law, in the matter of Sol. Greenberg, builder, and John R. Scott, contractor, for foundation stone, we were made to say that the contract between these parties gave right to file mechanics' lien, but such lien to be subject to presenting of mortgage liens against the premises. The word presenting should have been priority, as mechanics' liens, if filed, must be subject to mortgage, as agreed upon.

"A word to the wise is sufficient,"
Is a maxim we've frequently heard;
And now what we want is a maxim
To tell us just what is that word.

—Philadelphia Record.

Well, the word is only a short one,
And its meaning is far from obscure;
It enjoins all dutiful fathers,
While they still have good health, to
INSURE.

Architect Notes.

Angus S. Wade, architect, 1326 Chestnut street, is preparing plans for an apartment house to be erected at Girard avenue and Fortieth street, to be known as "The Parkside." Estimates are being taken by Chas. McCaul, contractor on the work.

On the west side of Twenty-ninth street, above Dickinson street, Contractor W. J. McShane is going to put up a $12,000 pastoral residence for St. Gabriel's Roman Catholic Church. The new structure will measure 39 x 57 feet; it will be three stories high, and have a front of Port Deposit granite. The plans were made by Architect E. F. Durang.

General Contractor Philip Arms, Bourse Building, who received the contract for the erection of a $250,000 pleasure palace at Asbury Park, N. J., from Architect H. A. W. Reeves, of New York City, says that this proposed structure has been temporarily abandoned, on account of the Pleasure Palace Company failing to raise the necessary capital.

MacCollin and Fast, architects, 1001 Chestnut street, are busily engaged on plans for alteration of exterior and interior of buildings as follows: Nos. 1810 and 1234 Walnut st. and 240 South Twelfth street and 1205 Spruce street. The drawings contemplate fine fronts and all modern conveniences on interior. Estimates will likely be asked at an early day.

Architect Charles Edgerton, Fidelity Building, has finished final drawings and specifications for a storage house that is to be built at Morris street wharf for the American Product Company, 14 South Broad street. This storage house is to be built of steel and brick, with a slag or tin roof. It will be one story high, and when completed it will have a floor space of 50,000 square feet.

Architects Pritchett Brothers, 424 Walnut street, are making preliminary plans for a residence that will be built at Swarthmore, Pa. It will be built of stone and frame, with a shingle roof. This residence will be three stories high, and will measure 42 feet wide and about 50 feet long. All the modern conveniences will be introduced. Mention will be made when final plans are started, and details will be noted later. The owner's name is withheld for the present.

Bailey and Truscott, architects, 421 Chestnut street, have been engaged to make plans for the new St. Elizabeth P. E. Church and parish building to be erected at Sixteenth and Mifflin streets. The structure will be in Byzantine style of architecture, of red brick, round arches, the columns on interior to be of polished marble and will support the clerestory; also a circular apse, very handsome in design, and the chancel steps will be of marble, whilst the floors will be laid in cement work, walls plastered for decoration, roof to be of Italian tile work. Same architects have just let the contract for addition to stable of Mrs. Wm. Simpson to Wm. H. Burns of Berwyn, Pa.

Messrs. Doyle & Doak, 183 South Fifteenth street, are figuring on a colonial residence that will be built at Fifteenth street and Baltimore avenue for Mr. W. B. Morrison, of this city, from drawings prepared by Architect William J. Macaulley, 1103 Walnut street. It will be built of stone and frame, with a shingle roof, and will be three stories high, with a basement. When completed it will have a frontage measuring 30 feet and a depth of about 60 feet. The first story will have chestnut finish, and the second and third floors will be of white pine. The following items will be introduced: Combination hot air and hot water heating, electric gas fixtures, wiring, bells, annunciators, speaking tubes, mantels, wardrobes, grille work, plumbing, bath-room fixtures, painting, papering, interior tile work, glazing, etc. The cost will amount to about $3000.

Architect Addison Hutton, Fourth and Chestnut streets, has received bids and awarded William D. Bozarth, general contractor and builder, 123 South Second street, the contract for an alteration and addition to a store building situated at 305 Market street, for William Hansell & Sons, of this city. This alteration will include a general remodelling of present store building, and the addition will be built of brick, with a tin roof. When completed, this building will be five stories high, with a basement. The following items are included in this contract: Heating, electric lighting, wiring, etc., tile work, plumbing, toilet-room fixtures, painting, glazing and interior work. Previously noted. The same architect has drawn plans for a handsome memorial library building, to be two stories high and to measure 33 x 90 feet, which is to be built for the Lincoln University, in Chester county. The material to be used in construction will be brick, with Indiana limestone trimmings, and the new building will have a slate roof. The work will cost about $30,000 and shelf room will be available for 50,000 volumes.

Geo. Wild, architect, Johnstown, Pa., has been given the preparation of plans for the high school to be erected in this place after a competition in drawings. The new building will be erected at the corner of Market and Carr streets and will cost about $75,000. It is to be completed in time for the opening of the school term of 1899-0. The structure will be modern, with all the latest appointments, three stories high, with a twelve-foot basement, part of which is to be devoted to a room for manual training, furnaces, closets, etc., occupying the balance of that portion of the structure. The first floor will contain eight class-rooms, an office for the city superintendent and controllers, and other rooms. On the second floor will be several class-rooms, large study rooms, library, principal's room, and toilet rooms. The third floor will contain a drawing room, commercial room, chemical and physical laboratory, and class-rooms. The auditorium, which will comfortably seat one thousand persons, will have a stage, with dressing rooms and other appointments. Special attention will be paid to heating and ventilating throughout the building. The exterior walls will be laid of local red or buff pressed brick, trimmed with stone or terra cotta; the roof either of tile or green slate. In short, the new structure promises to be a model of its kind and among the best in the State.

Messrs. David Knickerbocker Boyd and Lawrence Visscher Boyd, associated architects, of the Harrison Building, Philadelphia, are preparing the drawings for the new Central Baptist Church to be built at Wayne, Del. Co. From a number of drawings submitted in competition for this church, those of the architects mentioned were finally selected. The drawings embrace an edifice about one hundred and five feet long by sixty-four feet wide, with an auditorium and Sunday-school room that can be thrown into one when desired. The total seating capacity will be about six hundred. The arrangement of the baptistry with the required dressing rooms and pastor's study is a feature of the plan. The exterior will be of local or rough stone, with cut stone copings, battlements, etc., and will have the principal entrance in a tower on the corner. Connecting with the entrance to the tower will be a porte-cochere and along one side of the building will run a commodious porch, treated in cloister effect. In the large stone gables will be tracery windows and in the low stone sides will be smaller windows designed for interior significance as well as exterior effect. The exterior will be treated in a rustic and characteristic manner suitable to the surroundings of a church in the country and will undoubtedly have a pleasing effect. Lawrence Visscher Boyd is also preparing plans for a fine school house to be erected at Radnor, Pa. Details later.

A Removal.

The Magnesia Covering Company, of this city, having secured the warehouse, 143 and 145 N. Broad street, has occupied the premises after having fitted them up to meet the requirements of its business.

The magnesia covering for steam pipes, boilers, &c., manufactured by the Keasbey & Mattison Company, has acquired, through its acknowledged superiority, such an extended popularity that new and enlarged warehouse facilities became imperative.

The large increase in the business of the company in this section is largely due to the efficient energy and business management of Mr. Barclay Johnson, the secretary and general manager, combined with a worthy and energetic corps of salesmen, of which Mr. Geo. P. Wilson is the superintendent. The offices are located on the first floor of the Broad street warehouse.

The fact that magnesia covering is guaranteed to contain not less than 85 per cent. of the carbonate of magnesia distributed through a constructive textile material, composed of asbestos, making a combination of heat-retaining qualities which are now conceded to be the best known to the scientific world, renders it beyond all question a covering greatly preferred by the practical, unsentimental masses who desire efficient and permanent results.

The Magnesia Covering Company is the sole agent for Pennsylvania, Delaware and Southern New Jersey.

Architect Notes.

Copies of the Building Laws, which have been rewritten by Chief William C. Haddock, of the Bureau of Building Inspection, have been forwarded to Harrisburg for enactment by the Legislature. The sections of the laws have been rearranged, thereby bringing all which bear upon any particular kind of work together. A new section, covering skeleton and fireproof, has been added to the laws, and the inconsistencies in the present Act have been stricken out. According to the revision all sections which relate to large, heavy buildings and all relating to dwellings and buildings of light character of construction are codified, which is not the case with the present law.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

H. L. Dixon, of this city, has the contract to erect a wire glass factory for the Thomas Davis Company, recently given a charter, at Latrobe, Pa. This factory will be constructed of brick and iron, two stories high, with a slag roof. It will have a floor space of about 81,000 square feet.

Owner and Builder John J. Conner is going to build eight two-story brick dwellings on Sedgely avenue, east of Thirteenth street. He is also going to put up eighteen two-story brick dwellings on the east side of Thirteenth street, below Allegheny avenue, and nine two-story brick dwellings, the same size, on Camae street, above Sedgely avenue.

Mr. Frank Cox, of Cambria and Amnuss streets, has awarded the contract to F. G. English, 1008 Marshall street, for an addition to a carpet factory that is to be built in this city. This factory will be built of brick, three stories high, and when finished will measure 53 x 123 feet. The cost of this mill addition will not exceed $18,500. It will have a slag roof.

Globe Artificial Stone Pavement Co., 3219 North Thirteenth street, John F. Galbraith, proprietor, has been awarded the contracts for the cement work on 82 two-story dwellings for Mr. Wm. T. B. Roberts, and 70 two and three-story dwellings for Mr. John Loughran. Mr. Galbraith has recently removed his office and residence from 1131 South Forty-sixth street to 3219 North Thirteenth street.

Charles Hornickel will at once build 98 two-story dwellings; sixty of them are to go up on Gratz street, from Cayuga to Wingohocking; 29 on Nineteenth street, south of Wingohocking, and five on Cayuga street, east of Nineteenth. Two stores and dwellings will occupy the northeast and northwest corners of Gratz and Wingohocking streets. Another will be built at the corner of Nineteenth and Cayuga streets, and a three story dwelling at the corner of Cayuga and Gratz streets.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company proposes to build a new ferry house at the foot of Market street as soon as the city comes to terms in the matter of the payment of damages for the removal of the company's wharves at Vine, Market, Walnut and Dock streets. The new structure will be two stories high, and the ferriboats will then be doubledeckers. The building will be 325 feet wide. There will be waiting rooms on each of the two floors, and the express offices will be located next to the waiting rooms. All the latest improvements and conveniences will be utilized in the construction and fitting out of the building.

Mr. Frank Moss, 2349 North Twenty-ninth street, is letting separate contracts on thirty houses that will be built at Thirty-third and Cumberland streets. These houses will be built of Pompeian brick, and also with stone trimmings, galvanized iron cornices and tin roofs. They will be two stories high, with basement. The following items will be let separately: Excavating, masonry and brick work, lumber and carpenter work, mill work, galvanized iron work, tin roofing, plastering, painting, papering, hot air heating, gas fixtures, tile work, plumbing, etc. The cost of this operation will amount to about $3500 each.

Work has been started on a new manufacturing plant at Meadow and McKean streets, where the Purity Food Company has purchased a tract of ground, 112 x 159 feet, on which it will erect a four-story building, 50 x 50 feet, and an engine house, 32 x 50 feet. The price paid for the lot was $20,000, payable in a yearly ground rent of $1200. The new plant, in which $50,000 of Philadelphia capital is invested, along with a considerable amount from Boston and Chicago, will have connection with the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio Railroads and the Belt Line, and expects to begin the manufacture of the company's specialties in about 90 days.

Bishop Abraham Grant, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, it is said, contemplates the purchase of the Forty-third Street M. E. Church, at Forty-third and Aspen streets, and there establish a colored church and mission school. Bishop Grant, who recently moved here from Massachusetts, has already made a liberal offer for the property, which is under consideration by the trustees. At a meeting on Tuesday night it was decided to canvass the neighborhood, and, if the sum of $2000 could be raised to lift the mortgage on the property, the offer of Bishop Grant would be declined, and a new edifice erected on the site.

Private plans are now being prepared for a stable that will be built at Forty-first and Haverford streets for Messrs. Beisweger Bros., Lancaster avenue and Forty-first street. This stable will be built of ornamented brick, with stone trimmings. It will measure 30 x 100 feet, and will be three stories high. All the latest improvements in stable fittings and attachments will be introduced. The following items will be included in the general contract: Excavating, masonry and brick work, concrete and cement flooring, plumbing and drainage, tin roofing, galvanized iron work, lumber and carpenter work, painting, glazing, hardware, iron window guards, elevator, etc., and stable fittings. Mention will be noted when bids are taken.

The Sale of the Century

Times were very hard last Fall, just before the election of President McKinley. Manufacturers were glad to accept orders at cost rather than close down their mills.

Firm in the belief that the tide must soon turn, we ordered double quantities of piece goods from leading American mills at lowest prices ever quoted on American woolsens.

IN THIS, WE WERE ALONE

We are, therefore, enabled to inaugurate the GREATEST CLOTHING SALE of the CENTURY, which couples Worthiest Garments with the Saving of Cloth Weavers' and Clothing Dealers' Profits. Pray you, recall our 28 years of business truth-telling and truth-acting—and so, come, see and judge.

Architect Notes.

A. W. Dilks, 1001 Chestnut street, has made plans for remodeling the Farren mansion for Samuel J. Penrose, of Doylestown.

Cope & Stewardson, architects, 324 Walnut street, have prepared plans for alterations to the northeast corner of Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, to adapt it for use as a ticket office for the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad on the first floor.

A new church is contemplated to be erected by the Congregation P. E. Holy Innocents of Tacony, on Torresdale avenue, near the site of their present building. It is understood work will be started at once, so as to lay the corner stone about May 18th next.

A proposition is being considered to eliminate from the classified service of the Treasury Department the office of supervising architect, and to re-organize the force, in order to incorporate certain improvements which will afford better scope for ability, and reader more satisfaction in the distribution of patronage. The matter is held under advisement by Secretary Lyman J. Gage and an ultimatum will be rendered, probably, at an early day.

William Macauley, architect, 1102 Walnut street, has made plans for interior alterations to the stores of Finley Acker & Co., Eighth street above Arch. These are to be quite extensive in character, and all improvements will be introduced. The same architect has made plans for a factory for Hood & Dungan, at American and Diamond streets, to be two stories high, of brick and stone, slow burning material. All modern conveniences introduced.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

William Shelly, builder, proposes to erect 150 houses on the block bounded by Fifth, Sixth, Porter and Ritner streets. All to be of brick, with stone trimmings, and every modern comfort and convenience introduced.

Preliminary plans are in the hands of President W. B. Nicholson, of the Land, Title and Trust Company, for their new building to be erected at Broad and Chestnut streets. A full description of the structure has been given in these columns.

Buck & Gallagher, Ninth and Wolf streets, have secured the contracts for all the brownstone work on 82 two-story dwellings at Fifth and Ritner streets, for Mr. Wm. T. B. Roberts, and 80 two-story dwellings for Mr. Alex. Cowan, at Forty-seventh and Aspen streets.

Allen B. Rorke, general contractor, Bourse Building, has been awarded the contract to erect the new power house at Thirteenth and Mt. Vernon streets, in this city. The structure will be of brick and iron construction, cement flooring, and general conveniences of modern character introduced. Work has started.

Contractors William Steel & Sons, 506 Walnut street, have been awarded the contract for the erection of a residence at Tabor Station, Pa., for Mr. George H. Hutt, by Architect Thomas Jamison, 3219 Chestnut street. This residence will be built of stone and frame, with a shingle roof. Mentioned before in these columns.

Contractors Porter, Thompson & Son, 2044 Cuthbert street, have been awarded the general contract for a residence that is to be erected in the vicinity of Eighteenth and Pine streets by the owner, Mr. James McGlone. This residence will be built of brick, with stone trimmings. It will be four stories high, with a basement. This residence will have a frontage of 13 feet and a depth measuring about 60 feet. The cost, including all sub contracts, will not exceed $7500.

Messrs. S. Rand & Co., 14 South Broad street, have plans in their offices for a church that is to be built at Lehigh avenue and Lawrence street, from plans and specifications prepared by Architect G. Holm, of Strasburg, Pa., for the Board of Trustees of Eden M. E. Church. This church will be built of stone, with a slate roof. It will be one story high, with galleries and basement. The following items will be included in the general contract: Excavating, masonry work, mill work, carpenter and timber work, slate roofing, plumbing, tile work, painting, interior decorating, toilet-room fixtures, etc.

Contractor Charles McCall, No. 10 North Eleventh street, is estimating on a power-house that is to be erected at Red Bank, N. J., for the Atlantic, Long Branch and Red Bank Electric Railway Company. This powerhouse will be constructed of brick, stone and iron, with a slate roof. It will be one story high with an iron truss roof. When this power-house is completed it will measure 65 by 130 feet. The following items are included in the specifications: Excavating, masonry and brick work, stone trimmings, iron work, including columns, beams, separators, etc., trusses, plates, etc., glazing, etc. The entire cost of this power-house, excluding machinery, boilers, switch-boards, etc., will not exceed $43,000.

The recently elected Advisory Real Estate Board of the Union League met for organization at the Union League house on Thursday, when Mr. Joseph G. Darlington, the senior vice president of the Union League, was elected chairman and Mr. James Butterworth secretary. The complete Board consists of the following named gentlemen: Messrs. Joseph G. Darlington, Silas W. Pettit, Charles E. Pugh, Edward T. Stotesbury, James C. Brooks, Samuel S. Sharp, George Watson, James Butterworth and Henry G. Michener. To these gentlemen is committed the responsibility of preparing a plan for the improvement of the property owned by the Union League, which embraces the entire ground from Broad to Fifteenth streets and Sansom to Moravian streets, one of the most desirable and valuable club properties in this country if not in the world.

Through Pennsylvania.

The Sale of the Century

Times were very hard last Fall, just before the election of President McKinley. Manufacturers were glad to accept orders at cost rather than close down their mills.

Firm in the belief that the tide must soon
turn, we ordered double quantities of piece goods
from leading American mills at lowest prices ever quoted on American woolsens.

IN THIS, WE WERE ALONE

We are, therefore, enabled to inaugurate the GREATEST CLOTHING SALE of the CENTURY, which couples Worthiest Garments with the Saving of Cloth Weavers' and Clothing Dealers' Profits. Pray you, recall our 28 years of business truth-telling and truth-acting—and so, come, see and judge.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, APRIL 28, 1897.

READ the following from the Philadelphia Inquirer, and then get your children vaccinated, for, if it is an accepted certainty by the wise medical men of the University that the germ of tubercle consumption exists in the milk of a cow—and it seems now well established that it does—why is it not as certain that the blood of the animal in the cow-pox form is, at least, as potent in transfusing the consumption germ?

GERMS IN MILK.

What the Tuberculo-is Experiments at the University Reveal.

"The milk of the tuberculous cattle that are being treated at the veterinary department of the University of Pennsylvania has been shown to contain living germs. About 13 per cent. of guinea pigs inoculated with it became tuberculous, and this, despite the fact that none of the cattle have any tuberculosis of the udder. There are six head of cattle being treated, five of which are milk cows.

"Eighty guinea pigs were experimented upon, each one receiving but one injection of the milk. Sixty days after the injection the animal was killed and a post-mortem examination made. Some of the guinea pigs died from the disease before the expiration of the sixty days. A peculiar feature of the experiments is the fact that the milk from the cow showing the most advanced symptoms of the disease does not appear to be infectious. These experiments will have a strong bearing on the much-discussed question as to whether or not the milk from tuberculous cattle with no disease of the udder is diseased."

Building and Real Estate Notes.

J. W. Pepper will purchase the adjoining lot to his present property, Broad and Oxford streets, for the purpose of enlarging the apartment house now being erected at that location.

Wm. Christy, builder, Sixteenth and Wharton streets, will at once erect forty houses on Baneroft and Jackson streets. All to be of brick, stone trimmings and modern comforts on interior.

John Loughran, builder, will at once erect 84 houses, two and three-story, on Percy and Hutchinson streets, above Cumberland. They are brick fronts, with sandstone trimmings and best modern conveniences, etc.

It is understood to be the intention of the St. John's P. E. Church congregation, at Merionville, near Cynwyd Station, to make extensive improvements to their present building, including an entirely new church building, a parish and rectory building as well. The vestry and a building committee have the matter in charge.

Mr. F. A. Poth, brewer, will at once begin the erection of 78 dwellings on Parkside avenue and the street which will be cut in rear of the former. Mr. Poth now owns quite or nearly all of the block between Forty-second and Forty-third and extending to Girard avenue, and will improve the entire plot. Some of these homes will cost about $14,000, and be highly ornamented in Pompeian brick and stone trimmings, handsome plate glass, grille work, electric wiring and finest of plumbing, etc. It is understood bids are being taken on the work by Mr. Poth.

The Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, at Seventh and Walnut streets, intend to increase their present quarters by adding property already owned by them on the west. Nos. 706-8-10-12 Walnut street are to be taken in and a new addition erected in keeping architecturally with the present building and material of the same. New vaults and safes and offices are to be added. This will necessitate considerable tile and mosaic work, electric wiring, gas fixtures, decoration on interior, grille work of iron and brass, office furniture and fittings and all modern comforts and conveniences, etc. Furness Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, will prepare the plans and supervise the work of construction. This building when finished will be the largest and finest of its kind in this country and absolutely fire-proof throughout. As soon as all tenants are out the work of tearing down the old and building the new will be started, which will be at an early day. Estimates will be asked for soon.

Through Pennsylvania.

—The committee appointed for the purpose of inspecting the electric light plants at Langhorne and Jenkintown, with a view of establishing trolley lines to connect Sellersville, Pukaskie, Benjamin and Silverdale, and to furnish electric lighting for the towns, have made a favorable report, and the committee has been authorized to procure estimates of the expense at once.

—At Pittsburg the City Engineer has prepared plans for street work to cost about $150,000. The work will include improvements on about thirty-eight streets. William T. Manning, Chief Engineer of the B. & O. R. R., has stated that a reservoir will be constructed near Glencore with a capacity of about 2,000,000 gallons. A dam will be erected across the valley. J. E. Obitz has taken out a permit for the erection of four two-story-and-attic brick dwellings to cost about $24,000. The Sale of the Century

Times were very hard last Fall, just before the election of President McKinley. Manufacturers were glad to accept orders at cost rather than close down their mills.

Firm in the belief that the tide must soon turn, we ordered double quantities of piece goods from leading American mills at lowest prices ever quoted on American woolsens.

IN THIS, WE WERE ALONE

We are, therefore, enabled to inaugurate the GREATEST CLOTHING SALE of the CENTURY, which couples Worthiest Garments with the Saving of Cloth Weavers' and Clothing Dealers' Profits. Pray you, recall our 28 years of business truth-telling and truth-acting—and so, come, see and judge.

The "Albo" Detachable Seat and Cover

Patented Sept. 11, 1894; Feb. 5, 1895.

It is recognized by experts, conversant with sanitary matters, that every fixture must be as near "all open" as it is possible to make it. With the "Albo" detachable seat we not only do away with the unnecessary and dirt-absorbing woodwork at back of closet going against wall, but also present a seat in every way a perfect sanitary success.

The "Albo" seat allows of an "all open" space back between closet and wall, thus giving free access around the bowl at all times. Another great advantage which the "Albo" seat possesses is that it can be entirely detached from the earthenware by simply lifting it up, so that all surfaces of the seat and bowl can be kept perfectly sweet and clean.

The Sale of the Century

Times were very hard last Fall, just before the election of President McKinley. Manufacturers were glad to accept orders at cost rather than close down their mills.

Firm in the belief that the tide must soon turn, we ordered double quantities of piece goods from leading American mills at lowest prices ever quoted on American woolsens.

IN THIS, WE WERE ALONE

We are, therefore, enabled to inaugurate the GREATEST CLOTHING SALE of the CENTURY, which couples Worthiest Garments with the Saving of Cloth Weavers' and Clothing Dealers' Profits. Pray you, recall our 28 years of business truth-telling and truth-acting—and so, come, see and judge.

the number of carloads of it that we've sold. But the quality the tale briefly and well told.

These are for a new front of brick and stone, also a general remodelling of the interior, and all modern comforts will be introduced. Estimates being taken.

The Secretary of the Treasury having asked for the resignation of the Supervising Architect, W. Martin Aiken, it is likely the office will be eliminated from the classified service and awarded to a selection from Pennsylvania. This of course will be made by Senators Quay and Penrose if such action be taken as indicated above.

James T. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street, has made extensive plans for alterations and additions to the dormitories of Girard College. These include new work and detail alteration to the present structure of an extensive character. Estimates are being made on the work in the office of W. R. Dougherty and other contractors.

This work will include remodelling the church proper, and the addition will be two stories high, of brick and stone; all modern improvements will be introduced. The work will be started at an early day.

E. P. Elkington, architect, 211 South Sixth street, has finished plans for a church to be erected in West Philadelphia. It will be of stone and brick, two stories high, slate roof, 85 x 75 feet in area. The main audience room will seat about 800 persons and Sabbath school about 300. All modern furniture, fixtures and comforts are included in the estimates which are now being made in architect's office.

Wilson Bros., architects, Drexel Building, have made plans for the erection of a large building at the Presbyterian Hospital to be known as the Hoge Ward. Structure to be three stories high, mansard roof, terra cotta trimmings, brick and stone walls. The interior will contain all improvements. Same architects are making drawings for alterations to the Kortright Building and the Men's Surgical Ward. Bids are being made for the work.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, has finished plans for a fine rectory for Rev. Joseph A. Strahan, Church of the Immaculate Conception, at Jenkintown, Pa. The building will be three stories, frame, tin roof, and basement with cement floors, steam heat, electric work and best comforts and improvements. Estimates are to be taken at once on the work in office of the architect. Mr. Watson is engaged on other plans which will be noted at an early day.

Stearns & Castor, architects, Bourse Building, have in hands and upon boards plans for an amount of work, among which may be noted a very fine church to be built at Williamsport, Pa., for a Presbyterian congregation at that place. The structure will be of stone, slate roof, steam heat and electric work, as well as all modern conveniences. The same architects have made plans as follows: A three-story brick house on Dyer street, Frankford, for H. Thompson; a three story residence for Wm. Bowker, stone and brick; also for a residence for Geo. Pabst, at Frankford, and the contract let for the latter to Otto Felchman, general contractor.

J. E. and A. L. Pennock, contractors, 805 Walnut street, have been directed to proceed with the erection of the new office building at the southeast corner of Broad and Chestnut streets, upon property owned by the Freeman estate, and for which plans were made more than a year ago. The plans are for a sixteen-story structure, granite, brick and terra cotta work and steel skeleton, and the whole to be absolutely fireproof. Interior will be handsomely embellished in mosaic, marble and tile work, iron grille and brass work, elevators for passengers, with freight lifts attached, steam heat, electric work, improved sanitary plumbing and ventilation, together with all modern comforts and conveniences. "A word to the wise is sufficient,"
Is a maxim we've frequently heard;
And now what we want is a maxim
To tell us just what is that word.

It enjoins all dutiful fathers,

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAY 12, 1897.

"Through This the Well Beloved Brutus Stabbed."

The invitations to outside architects to prepare plans for the Capitol Buildings at Harrisburg, Pa., is an insult to every architect in the State. The idea of limiting the number of Pennsylvania architects to three is a travesty upon common sense and a reflection which every Pennsylvania architect should rebuke by peremptorily declining to have anything to do with either Professor Laird or his building commissioners. The parallels for this disregard of home talent can be found in the Board of Education's hunt for a general superintendent and a music teacher, and the Bourse's Building Committee permitting contracts for material and construction work going to non-residents.

When the U. S. government wanted a design for American coins, Mr. Morgan, an Englishman, was purposely imported for that special purpose. The result is a bastard compromise between a wild goose and a turkey buzzard—a something entirely non-American and entirely unsatisfactory.

The people of the State bear the burden of taxes, and the people of the city respond to patriotic calls for large sums of money to be paid to outsiders.

Our point is that home industries and home enterprise merit the first chance in sharing in all the advantages to be derived from the expenditure of moneys which come directly from our own people.

The ability of the architects of the State of Pennsylvania is not only well established at home and abroad, but their work and responsibility merit full recognition from our State and city officials, particularly in the matter of public buildings.

THE Heroy Company, of this city, are out with a circular announcing the transfer of its entire business to the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, asking for its successors the same courtesy that has been so generously extended to the old concern. Mr. Heroy continues as the Eastern manager of the Pittsburgh Company's business, while Mr. Seeley will continue the management of the Philadelphia business.

THE Andrews Investigation Committee in its reports says that the total expenses of the departments of the city have increased 250 per cent. in the eleven years of the Bullitt bill, while the population has increased but 40 per cent.; that while the city in its contracts is theoretically protected, the contractor is from first to last selected by and under the supervision of the executive officer.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

J. M. Stitelor, owner, is making excavation for sixteen dwellings on east side of Redfield street, south of Haverford; brick and stone, with best modern appliances on interior.

Wendell & Smith have given the contract to Milton W. Young for two three-story dwellings, 40 x 32 feet, on Overbrook and Woodbine avenues, Overbrook. Boyd & Boyd, architects.

Columbia Heater and Range Company, 1634 North Eleventh street, has been awarded the contract for heater and range work on six two and three-story dwellings for Mr. U. S. Hunsberger, at Twentieth and Federal streets.

St. Stephens P. E. Church have deeded a lot of ground to the P. E. Church of the Holy Comforter, at Forty-eighth and Haverford streets, and the congregation intend making the effort to erect a church thereon at an early day.

Several new fireproof rooms are to be constructed in the Franklin Institute, on Seventh street below Market, for the safe keeping of archives. Also a new iron stairway and some minor detail work, for which estimates are being taken.

H. C. Vaughan, of Glenside, Montgomery county, has secured the contract for the new $15,000 school house to be erected at Oreland. It will be built of stone, slate roof, and will be 40 x 70 feet. T. F. Miller, 1221 Arch street, Phila., architect.

Wm. Murphy, contractor, 263 South Tenth street, has been awarded the contract to build an addition to stable of the Quaker City Cab Company, on Vine above Twelfth street. Considerable detail work also on interior; whole to cost about $5000.

Thomas J. Whelan, builder, has bought of Chas. F. Newhall 200 x 198 feet of ground at northeast corner Eleventh and McKean streets, and will, in the near future, erect a number of fine dwellings on the site; $28,000 was the consideration involved.

Burd P. Evans, contractor, 5031 Knox street, Germantown, has been awarded the contract for alteration and addition to Gaston Presbyterian Church, Twelfth and Lehigh avenue. Previously noted in this journal. Chas. Bolton, architect, 1510 Chestnut street, drew the plans.

J. M. Clark, owner and builder, will at once erect a hotel at the northeast corner Eighth and Vine streets, 75 x 82 feet and three stories high. The structure will be of fancy brick and stone trimmings, supplied with all fixtures and conveniences, electric work, best plumbing, heating, etc.

At Springfield, Illinois, a new church building to cost $80,000 is to be erected by the Colored Methodists. It will be called the Lincoln Memorial Church. There will be three large memorial stained glass windows for Lincoln, Fred Douglass and John Brown. It will also have a memorial room.

Frank Riggs, 338 South Thirteenth street, has the contract for a stable at Lansdowne, Pa., for Frank E. Fleer. The structure is to be of stone, slate roof and contain all modern improvements on interior. R. G. Kennedy, 423 Chestnut street, drew the plans, which have been fully noted in this journal.

Edward Roney, builder, has started work on seventy-seven dwellings on Fifty-second, south of Seneca street, and on Wilton, south of Seneca, on both sides of the street; also on Fifty-third street and on Haverford street a number will be erected. All to be of brick, with stone facings and steps. Interior will contain every modern comfort and convenience.

The Property Committee of the Board of Education have adopted new rules as to the selection of material for new school houses. Hereafter, in the construction of foundations, Conshohocken, Chester Valley or Mill Creek stone may be used, while superstructures may be built of Port Deposit, Holmesburg, Perryville, Rockport, High Island, Hurricane Island, or any other granite that is acceptable to the architects or committee.

F. G. Wheeler and W. S. Boody, 125 South Fifth street, this city, as Boody & Wheeler, have secured the contract for constructing the East Penn Trolley Road from Doylestown, Bucks county, to Trenton, N. J. Stone ballast will be used for its entire length. Work will be commenced at once at Morrisville, near Doylestown. We are informed that the contract embraces power houses, car sheds, boilers representing 525 horse power; engines, 425 horse power; generators, 325 horse power; the latest improved cars, in fact all of the modern auxiliaries for a first class trolley road in every respect.

The Gimble Bros. having taken a long lease on the additional six-story building now occupied by Young, Smythe, Field & Co., Nos. 516-18-20 Market street, will, during the coming summer, make alteration on interior and exterior so as to conform the structure to their use. The wall will be cut and torn out and elevators introduced, new electric work and plumbing, waiting rooms and parlors arranged for, counting houses and salesrooms fitted in the most elegant manner, in fact the entire building will be remodeled throughout. The move of the firm of Young, Smythe, Field & Co., to the large Harrison Building, Tenth and Market streets, will also necessitate much work in the way of arranging the building to suit their immense business. Almost the entire building will be overhauled in this new deal which takes place in about sixty days.

The Sale of the Century

Times were very hard last Fall, just before the election of President McKinley. Manufacturers were glad to accept orders at cost rather than close down their mills.

Firm in the belief that the tide must soon turn, we ordered double quantities of piece goods from leading American mills at lowest prices ever quoted on American woolsens.

IN THIS, WE WERE ALONE

We are, therefore, enabled to inaugurate the GREATEST CLOTHING SALE of the CENTURY, which couples Worthiest Garments with the Saving of Cloth Weavers' and Clothing Dealers' Profits. Pray you, recall our 28 years of business truth-telling and truth-acting—and so, come, see and judge.

of getting the best value in the world for your money. The people have purchased from us over half a million pounds of this famous blend, and the sales are increasing day by day, week by week, until 50,000 people are drinking it daily. It must therefore have merit (don't you really think so?) and if it has merit what shall be said of the price, 24 cents a pound, 5 pounds $1.00? Is that merit or only novelty?

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAY 19, 1897.

The Penn Mutual Insurance Company, of this city, will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary on the twenty-seventh of May by a grand banquet at the Union League. On the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth, the agents of the company throughout the United States, numbering over one hundred, will meet at Mercantile Library Hall, on Tenth street. Mr. Harry F. West, at present the vice president of the company, and who will, on July 1st next, assume the position of president, to which he has been recently elected, will make the address of welcome. There is abundant matter in the history of this old Philadelphia institution, with its continuous years of business success, as creditable to its officers and managers from a business standpoint as it is for their high regard of the grand trust imposed upon them, to afford ample scope for the rhetorical powers of the most ambitious. As an episode in the city's vast business interests, the event merits more than a passing notice, for it has been at our very doors that the Penn Mutual had its birth, its many years of uninterrupted success, and now the coming glory of its bi-centennial celebration. From a small beginning, on May 25, 1847—indeed, so small that a tin box was its only safety vault—this magnificent institution has, in fifty years, acquired such a status that its financial resources are outranked by only a few similar concerns in the country.

There is still due, for construction work and material used in the erection of the Philadelphia Bourse, about $400,000. This amount must be paid by November 1st, next. An effort is to be made through a committee of fifteen, together with the directors, to float an issue of preferred stock to the full amount of this indebtedness. The conundrum which naturally suggests itself is, What will be the market value of the common stock, which now sells at $8.50 per share, after it has been superseded by this heavy issue of preferred stock? The treasurer's report showed receipts for the year amounting to $331,140, and expenditures of $329,886.

Architect Notes.

Bailey and Truscott, architects, have made plans for alterations to house of Mrs. Cooper Smith, 1900 Pine street, and bids are being made on the work.

Architect E. L. Rice, Wilmington, Del., has made plans for the new building to be erected by the Delaware Telephone Company, corner Seventh and Orange streets. Plans are now on the boards of the Master Builders' Exchange at that place.

Architect J. C. Shirk, 423 Chestnut street, is taking bids on an alteration and addition to a residence at St. David's, Pa., for Mr. Adolph Gosling, of this city. The alteration will include a remodelling of present building. The addition will be built of brick and stone, three stories high, with a slate roof. When alterations and additions are finished, this residence will contain all the latest and most modern improvements and conveniences.

A. F. Barrows, architect, North Sixth street, Reading Pa., has made plans for a residence on Cutler avenue for W. Hendel; brick, tin and slate roof and finest finish and best conveniences on interior. Also drawings for a house for Mr. Ganter on Eleventh street, same place, to be of local stone and all conveniences, etc. Same architect has made plans for a fine residence for H. J. Hasson. Frame and brick, slate roof, cement cellars and all modern conveniences.

Architect A. W. Dilks, 1001 Chestnut street, is preparing plans for a residence which will be erected at Doylestown, Pa. This residence will be built of brick, with stone trimmings. It will be three stories high and when completed it will measure 20 x 50 feet. All the latest improvements will be introduced, including combination heating, electrical work, mantels, wardrobes, grille and tile work, plumbing, painting, glazing, hardware, etc. The owner's name is withheld for the present.

In New York City considerable feeling has been engendered because the commissioners of the sinking fund have requested Architect John R. Thomas to draw plans and specifications for the new Hall of Records. It is held by the architects that no one should have been arbitrarily selected. That such an important public building should have been left open for competition, as it would have commanded the attention of those who have given to public buildings a lifetime of study and investigation.

Architect J. H. Windrim, 1107 Walnut street, is preparing final plans and specifications for an office building which is to be erected at the southeast corner of Twelfth and Walnut streets. The building will be built of brick, stone, iron and terra cotta. All the latest modern improvements in heating, lighting, ventilation, plumbing, etc., will be introduced. Messrs. Doyle and Doakes, 113 South Fifteenth street, are figuring on preliminary plans. Details will be noted later. The owner's name is withheld for the present. Mention will be made when plans are finished.

Plans and specifications have been prepared by Leon E. Dessez, architect, and Bernard D. Green, engineer, Washington, D. C., for alteration and additions to the hotel known in that city as "The Raleigh." These are new stories and interior alterations quite extensive in character, and in detail take in all kinds of interior work. Estimates are now being made in the offices of J. E. and A. L. Pennock, 305 Walnut street. The plans for the High School to be erected at Wayne, Pa., from plans by L. V. Boyd, architect, are also on boards in the same office.

Architect Robeson L. Perot, Bourse Building, is making preliminary plans for two dwellings that are to be built at Germantown, Phila. These houses will be built of brick and stone, with slate roofs. They will be two and a half stories high, and when completed they will measure 25 x 50 feet. All the latest modern improvements will be introduced, including combination heating, electrical work, speaking-tubes, mantels, wardrobes, tile work, plumbing, bathroom fixtures, painting, papering, glazing, hardware, etc. The cost of these houses will not exceed $4000, including all sub-contracts.

Architect Chas. F. Douglas, 1313 South Nineteenth street, wants bids for a four-story business building, at N. E. cor. Fourth and South streets, for Messrs Green & Kringel, now on South street between Fourth and Fifth streets. It will be built of Pompeian brick and stone, will have passenger and freight elevators, with steam power. It will be heated by steam. It will have combination gas fixtures. The design provides for a very handsome structure, with nine bay windows, to be covered with galvanized iron, tin roof and large plate glass windows. Building will be 19.6 x 55 feet.

Architects Bailey & Truscott, 423 Chestnut street, have finished plans and are taking estimates on a church which will be built at Sixteenth and Mifflin streets, for the St. Elizabeth P. E. Church congregation of this city. This church will be built of brick and stone, with a slate roof. It will have a frontage measuring 75 feet and a depth of about 120 feet. The following items will be included in the general contract: Steam heating, electric lighting, gas fixtures, electrical work, plumbing, toilet room fixtures, tile and mosaic work, a late system of ventilation, painting, stained glass, hardware, etc. The church furniture, including pews, altar furnishings, etc., will probably be let in separate contract. Mention will be made when contract is awarded. Cost, about $20,000.

Architect George Savage, 1510 Chestnut street, has finished final drawings and specifications for a church which will be erected at Third and Snyder avenue, for the Congregational Church, of this city. This church will be built of stone and brick, with a slate roof. It will be one and two stories high, with a basement. When finished this church will have a frontage measuring about 50 feet, and a depth of 65 feet. The following items are to be included in the general contract: Steam heating, electrical work, including gas fixtures, wiring, etc., tile work, plumbing, toilet-room fixtures, ventilating, painting, glazing, hardware, window guards, etc. The cost of this church will not exceed $10,000. Estimates are being taken, and General Contractor Philip Arno, Bourse Building, is figuring.

The new institution is to be made, if possible, one of the most perfectly equipped of its kind in the country. A party of gentlemen, in conjunction with Mr. Frank Campbell, 3521 N. Broad street, representing New York and German capitalists, have been investigating manufacturing sites with water front with the view of purchasing a tract of from five to one hundred acres suitable for a manufacturing plant for the manufacture of sulphurous (not sulphuric) acid and high grade gelatine and glue. The principals of the scheme include some of the most prominent and wealthy New York business men. There will be no lack of capital, and it is extremely desirable to secure the plant for Philadelphia, as the process, which is strictly German, is entirely free from offensive odors of any kind. Some fear was expressed that the tax rate would be increased to the concern if started here. This in a measure was removed by the explanation that the rapid enhancement in the value of desirable manufacturing sites would in a few years be so large that such small impediments were not worth consideration. The buildings needed for the plant, it is stated, will involve a cost of about $200,000. About fifty persons would be employed at the start. Mr. C. J. Ulman, 52 Wall street, New York city, or Mr. Campbell, can give information.
